CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

For authorized personnel only

Classified information is material that a government body claims is sensitive information that requires protection of confidentiality, integrity, or availability. Access is restricted by law or regulation to particular groups of people, and mishandling can incur criminal penalties and loss of respect. A formal security clearance is often required to handle classified documents or access classified data. The clearance process usually requires a satisfactory background investigation. Documents and other information assets are typically marked with one of several (hierarchical) levels of sensitivity—e.g., restricted, confidential, secret and top secret.

DECLASSIFICATION

Declassification is the process of removing the classification of a document and opening it for public inspection.
