Physics Exercise Khmer School:

Inside Cambodian Insurgency Daniel Bultmann, 2016-05-23 There are many different types of power practice directed towards making soldiers obedient and disciplined inside the field of insurgency While some commanders punish by inflicting physical pain others use re educative methods While some prepare soldiers by using close knit combat simulations others send their subordinates immediately into battle While these variations cannot fully be explained by the ideological set up of different groups or by their political orientation the basic assumption of the study is that they nevertheless do not emerge at random This book puts forth that the type of power being utilised depends on the habitus of the respective commander and as a result becomes socially differentiated Furthermore power practices are shaped by the classificatory discourse of commanders and their soldiers on good soldierhood and leadership The study found multiple habitus groups inside the field of insurgency each with a distinctive classificatory discourse and a corresponding power type at work While commanders shaped the dominating power practices such as military trainings indoctrination systems of rewards and punishments etc low ranking soldiers took active part in supporting or undermining power according to their own habitus formation This book helps professionals in this area to understand better the types of power practice inside insurgencies It is also a useful guide to students and academics interested in peace and conflict studies sociology and Southeast Asia Physical Education

Hoefinger, 2013-07-04 Dealing with the complex and discomfiting grey area where sex love and money collide this book highlights the general materiality of everyday sex that takes place in all relationships In doing so it draws attention to and destigmatizes the transactional elements within many normative partnerships be they transnational inter ethnic or otherwise Focusing on Cambodia and on a subculture of young women employed in the tourist bar scene referred to as professional girlfriends the book shows that the resulting transnational relationships between Cambodian women and their foreign partners are complex and multi layered It argues that the sex for cash prostitution framework is no longer an appropriate model of analysis Instead a new vocabulary of professional girlfriends and transactional sex is used with which the nuanced complexities of these transnational partnerships are analysed Interdisciplinary in nature the book inspires new understandings of gender power sex love desire political economy and materiality within everyday relationships around the globe It is a useful contribution for students and scholars of Anthropology Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Gender and Sexuality Studies and Cultural Studies

Life in a Cambodian Orphanage Kathie Carpenter,2021-05-14 What is it like to grow up in an orphanage What do residents themselves have to say about their experiences Are there ways that orphanages can be designed to meet children s developmental needs and to provide them with necessities they are unable to receive in their home communities In this book detailed observations of children s daily life in a Cambodian orphanage are combined with follow up interviews of the same children after they have grown and left the orphanage Their thoughtful reflections show that the quality of care children receive is more important for their well being than the site in which they receive it Life in a Cambodian Orphanage situates orphanages within the social and political history of Cambodia and shows that orphanages need not always be considered bleak sites of deprivation and despair It suggests best practices for caring for vulnerable children regardless of the setting in which they are living

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent

Leo Suryadinata, 2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore
