The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Rowena Murray, 2008-12-16 This book is designed for lecturers on a wide range of professional courses It directly addresses questions that come up again and again in seminar discussions questions that are fundamental to the values and perspectives of academics across the disciplines What is meant by the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education What is the purpose of higher education Are lecturers really students on these courses How do you do reflective writing What do we do with all this theory and jargon What does CPD in this area involve How do you do research on teaching and learning This book does not treat each element of the curriculum separately course design assessment evaluation of teaching etc since that approach has been well handled by others Instead like other books in the series it addresses elements of the curriculum in an integrated way thereby educating the reader in how to approach a range of higher education related issues This book provides a scholarly introduction to the literature on these questions Like other books in the series it offers a concise treatment of complex questions It also provides directions for future study Contributors Matthew Alexander Glynis Cousin Helen Fallon Ian Finlay Diana Kelly Ruth Lowry Marion McCarthy Rowena Murray Jacqueline Potter Christine Sinclair Sarah Skerratt and Barry Stierer Grants Jean M. Fromm,2007 Grants are available from thousands of sources both private and public To the grantseeker however this wealth of sources appears like an impenetrable jungle Where are the grants I need and what do I need to do to submit my ideas and proposals This book is designed to answer these questions by aiming the grantseeker to both the grant givers and by providing a bibliography of book for further research Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures David G. Nicholls,2015-01-01 The third edition of the MLA s widely used Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures features sixteen new essays by leading scholars Designed to highlight relations among languages and forms of discourse the volume is organized into three sections Understanding Language provides an overview of the field of linguistics with special attention to language acquisition and the social life of languages Forming Texts offers tools for understanding how speakers and writers shape language it examines scholarship in the distinct but interrelated fields of rhetoric composition and poetics Reading Literature and Culture continues the work of the first two sections by introducing major areas of critical study The nine essays in this section cover textual and historical scholarship interpretation comparative cultural and translation studies and the interdisciplinary topics of gender sexuality race and migrations among others As in previous volumes an epilogue examines the role of the scholar in contemporary society Each essay discusses the significance underlying assumptions and limits of an important field of inquiry traces the historical development of its subject introduces key terms outlines modes of research now being pursued postulates future developments and provides a list of suggestions for further reading This book will interest any member of the academic community seeking a review of recent scholarship while it provides an indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students of modern languages and literatures Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean ,2021-10-25 The Mediterranean has once again come into its own in global geo politics attracting international interest that goes well beyond the typical stereotypes propagated by the tourist industry Popular movements clamouring for democracy conflict zones that have a spill over effect well beyond the region efforts to engage with globalisation on its own terms one and all play out in various sectors of society education included Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean A Celebratory Retrospective brings together in one volume a selection of the best articles that have appeared in the Mediterranean Journal of Educational Studies whose first issue was published in 1996 Each chapter highlights challenges faced by education systems across the region seen from the perspective of leading scholars who draw on original empirical data a broad spectrum of theoretical frameworks and personal experience to reflect on education related topics Among these we find critical considerations of the role of the economy demography gender social stratification religion politics culture and language in shaping educational systems and practices Much has been achieved in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean over the past 25 years and yet a consideration of the continuities as much as of the ruptures is instructive showing how education remains both a transformative and reproductive force in communities Nursing Reading Writing Right Jeremy Punt, MA. Ius J Nel, 2018-10-18. In a collection of essays, former students, colleagues, and friends of Prof. Elna Mouton honour her life, career, and scholarly contributions upon her retirement from Stellenbosch University. The various essays interact with Prof. Mouton's concern for biblical hermeneutics, ethics, and the interactions and connections between the two, ultimately illustrating the width and variety of interest that her work stimulated and which it interacted with.

Proceedings of the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church... United Presbyterian Church (Scotland), 1874.

Directory of Research Grants 2008 Schoolhouse Partners LLC, 2008-05. It was the 50s and life was simple until September 25, 1954. That was the night that would be etched in the memory of the citizens of Stanfield, Massachusetts. The Chief of Police described the brutal savagery of the double homicide as the most atrocious crime in the history of the city. A fourteen-year-old girl and the four-year-old boy in her care were murdered at the hands of a deranged, depraved killer. A Thread of Evidence places the reader at the scene of the crime, an eye witness to the senseless stabbing of two innocent children. With a piece of crochet thread as their only clue, the entire police department, led by detectives Steven Logan and Raymond Gage, scour the city in search of a maniacal savage. When all tips and leads have been exhausted, they review all evidence. They come back to the thread. The only real evidence. With tenacity and perseverance, Logan and Gage apprehend the killer. The reader experiences the twists and turns of the investigation and ultimately occupies a reserved seat in the Superior Court as the trial proceedings commence. A Thread of Evidence has been written as fiction but inspired by an actual event. Fifty years later, it remains etched in the minds of all who had lived in the area. The author has researched court records, newspapers, interviewed neighbors, police, and has drawn on personal recollections of the crime. The story has been recounted over and over, and to this day, it continues to be discussed. A Thread of Evidence is a compelling account of superb detective work and unprecedented dedication of an entire police department.
