Visual Art Analysis University of Phoenix Stacey Pierce July 19, 2010 "Dream caused by the flight of a bee around a pomegranate, a second before waking up" By Salvador Dali, 1994, 51? 40. 5 cm, oil on canvas Thyssen-bornemisza collection. "A typical dream with a long theme, the consequences of a sudden accident that causes the awakening" –Salvador Dali. The Style the artist has used is Surrealism. , Salvador created this piece in such a way that the picture looks exaggerated and real. The painting shows highlights, shadows and shapes of a realistic pieces, and shows intently exaggerated color.

The Title of the piece tells the viewer that this painting is based about a dream and then its dramatic awakening, which obviously shows through the painting as there are main focal points that put line this "dream" which concludes to the title. This art work was painted using oils on canvas using a brush. The texture is smooth and the shadow and highlights are immaculate. (Otero, 2010) This art work does not have a political view, but rather gives the viewer the perception of what the painting is through the title of the painting.

Salvador uses symbols in the piece to represent the intentional focus of the dream, the symbols being the little pomegranate, the gun, the tigers, the fish and the big pomegranate. This art work shows brilliant and vibrant colours. Some colors being exaggerated to the fact that the color being used in the piece is not entirely true, for example, true colors of the tigers are done in a vibrant yellow which are false from the color of real tigers. The colors that Salvador uses give the piece depth, the colors used, gives way to the main focal points.

These focal points are brightened, drawing the viewer's attention toward the focal points and then toward the rest of the painting. Oranges, yellows, blues and grays are harmonious in nature. This creates a sense of rhythm as these colors often follow in the groups of warm and cool colors. The warm colors create the main focal point of the picture. Light is used through the elephant; the elephant is the lightest object in the painting. This could perhaps symbolize purity and goodness, showing that the elephant is the opposite of the tigers and gun.

Lights are also used through out the painting itself as the colors are light shades. In this circumstance, this could represent the "new morning" or the "awakening of the dream". Light creates the movement in this piece; it makes the picture flow evenly. The light also creates a sense of depth because of the highlights and shadows. The artist uses space well. The painting draws attention to the focal points by subtle detail in the background, such as the floating island and the rock coming out of the water.

This in its own way creates balance and space in the picture making things extremely even which compliments the color. To add to this balance the artist used natural three dimensional shapes which add a realistic feel to the painting. Line is used to create a sense of movement. Line...

Routledge International Handbook of the Sociology of Art and Culture Laurie Hanquinet, Mike Savage, 2015-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of the Sociology of Arts and Culture offers a comprehensive overview of sociology of art and culture focusing especially though not exclusively on the visual arts literature music and digital culture Extending and critiquing Bourdieu's influential analysis of cultural capital the distinguished international contributors explore the extent to which cultural omnivorousness has eclipsed highbrow culture the role of age gender and class on cultural practices the character of aesthetic preferences the contemporary significance of screen culture and the restructuring of popular culture The Handbook critiques modes of sociological determinism in which cultural engagement is seen as the simple product of the educated middle classes The contributions explore the critique of Eurocentrism and the global and cosmopolitan dimensions of cultural life The book focuses particularly on bringing cutting edge relational research methodologies both qualitative and quantitative to bear on these debates This handbook not only describes the field but also proposes an agenda for its development which will command major international interest Friendship in Art Claire

Roberts, 2010-06-01 This book documents in letters photos and paintings a special friendship between two highly creative individuals who helped shape Chinese culture in the twentieth century the revered traditional painter Huang Binhong 1865-1955 and the young cosmopolitan critic and translator Fou Lei 1908-66 As one of China's oldest and most distinguished artists in the 1940s and 1950s Huang Binhong was committed to artistic continuity and reinvigoration of brush and ink painting Fou Lei was a child of the New Culture Movement which repudiated many literati traditions but reached out to Huang Binhong to discuss the possibilities for contemporary Chinese art amid the tides of war and Communist dictates of socialist realism as the guiding priority for cultural workers Both were cultural mediators and translators of ideas and cultural expressions Both had deep appreciation of the common origins of calligraphy and painting rendering complex feelings with brush and ink Their intimate artistic conversations over more than a decade depict their alienation and uncertainty amid China's turbulent cultural politics The Lure and the Truth of Painting Yves Bonnefoy, 1995-11 Always fascinated in his poetry by the nature of color and light and the power of the image Bonnefoy continues to pursue these themes in his discussion of the lure and truth of representation He sees the painter as a poet whose language is visual and he seeks to find out what visual artists can teach those who work with words
