Oxford Grade 9 Social Sciences Caps 2014:

States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros, Mathilde Rogez, Gilles Teulie, 2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call The Oxford Handbook of Stigma, Discrimination, and Health Brenda Major, John F. Dovidio, Bruce G. Link, 2018 Stigma leads to poorer health In The Oxford Handbook of Stigma Discrimination and Health leading scholars identify stigma mechanisms that operate at multiple levels to erode the health of stigmatized individuals and collectively produce health disparities This book provides unique insights concerning the link between stigma and health across various types of stigma and groups The Autocratic Middle Class Bryn Rosenfeld,2020-12 The conventional wisdom is that a growing middle class will give rise to democracy Yet the middle classes of the developing world have grown at a remarkable pace over the past two decades and much of this growth has taken place in countries that remain nondemocratic Rosenfeld explains this phenomenon by showing how modern autocracies secure support from key middle class constituencies Drawing on original surveys interviews archival documents and secondary sources collected from nine months in the field she compares the experiences of recent post communist countries including Russia the Ukraine and Kazakhstan to show that under autocracy state efforts weaken support for democracy especially among the middle class When autocratic states engage extensively in their economies by offering state employment offering perks to those to those who are loyal and threatening dismissal to those who are disloyal the middle classes become dependent on the state for economic opportunities and career advancement and ultimately do not support a shift toward democratization Her argument explains why popular support for Ukraine s Orange Revolution unraveled or why Russians did not protest evidence of massive electoral fraud The author s research questions the assumption that a rising share of educated white collar workers always makes the conditions for democracy more favorable and why dependence on the state has such pernicious consequences for democratization Marx and Public Services Tony Kinder,2025-04-10 By evaluating previous public management research through Marxist concepts this textbook offers innovative solutions to public service problems It updates Marx s framework to reflect the growth of public services transitioning from abstract state notions to concrete service analysis Addressing two critical gaps the book highlights the benefits of a Marxist approach to public services and presents Marxist ideas to examine these services at a micro level It demonstrates the relevance of Marxist frameworks for public service professionals critically reviews current public management knowledge and sheds light on the dynamic nature of public services against the background of neoliberalism While doing so the book goes beyond a Eurocentric perspective providing cases and practical examples from developed and developing countries with an additional focus on Asian practices Written by an award winning author with years of practical experience and designed for graduate and advanced undergraduate students each chapter sets clear learning objectives and reviews existing tools and frameworks The chapters also present new ways of improving public services encouraging readers to apply Marxist concepts to their contexts and cultures This will also make this book a practical resource for practitioners and professionals seeking to resolve their grounded public services issues Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of

Research Design in the Social Sciences Graeme Blair, Alexander Coppock, Macartan Humphreys, 2023-06-27 A state of the art approach to evaluating research design for students and scholars across the social sciences Assessing the properties of research designs before implementing them can be tricky for even the most seasoned researchers This book provides a powerful framework Model Inquiry Data Strategy and Answer Strategy or MIDA for describing any empirical research design in the social sciences MIDA enables you to characterize the key analytic features of observational and experimental designs qualitative and quantitative designs and descriptive and causal designs An accompanying algorithm lets you declare designs in the MIDA framework diagnose properties such as bias and precision and redesign features like sampling assignment measurement and estimation procedures Research Design in the Social Sciences is an essential tool kit for the entire life of a research project from planning and realization of design to the integration of your results into the scientific literature A must have resource for current and future researchers who want to learn about the properties of their designs before they implement them Includes a library of the most common designs in the social sciences Provides a complete declaration of the canonical design for each library entry describes the circumstances under which the design can be strong or weak and explores the consequences of the choices under the research designer s control Accompanied by online resources that can be used in conjunction with the book An ideal textbook for graduate students and advanced undergraduates Northern Neighbours John Bryden,2015-03-23 This edited collection of essays covers various elements of the analysis of Norway and Scotland including land ownership politics agriculture industry money and banking local government education religion access and the outdoor life as well as se Precarious Ties Meg Rithmire,2023 Developing Asia has been the site of some of the last century s fastest growing economies as well as some of the world s most durable authoritarian regimes Many accounts of rapid growth alongside monopolies on political power have focused on crony relationships between the state and business But these relationships have not always been smooth as anti corruption campaigns financial and banking crises and dramatic bouts of liberalization and crackdown demonstrate Why do partnerships between political and business elites fall apart over time And why do some partnerships produce stable growth and others produce crisis or stagnation In Precarious Ties Meg Rithmire offers a novel account of the relationships between business and political elites in three authoritarian regimes in developing Asia Indonesia under Suharto s New Order Malaysia under the Barisan Nasional and China under the Chinese Communist Party All three regimes enjoyed periods of high growth and supposed alliances between autocrats and capitalists Over time however the relationships between capitalists and political elites changed and economic outcomes diverged While state business ties in Indonesia and China created dangerous dynamics like capital flight fraud and financial crisis Malaysia s state business ties contributed to economic stagnation To understand these developments Rithmire presents two conceptual models of state business relations that explain their genesis and why variation occurs over time She shows that mutual alignment occurs when an authoritarian regime organizes its institutions or even its informal practices to induce capitalists to invest in growth and development Mutual endangerment on the other hand obtains when economic and political elites are entangled in corrupt dealings and invested in perpetuating each other s dominance The loss of power on one side would bring about the demise of the other Rithmire contends that the main factors explaining why one pattern dominates over the other are trust between business and political elites determined during regime formation and the dynamics of financial liberalization Empirically rich and sweeping in scope Precarious Ties offers lessons for all nations in which the state and the private sector are deeply entwined

Children and Media in India Shakuntala Banaji, 2017-05-18 Is the bicycle like the loudspeaker a medium of communication in India Do Indian children need trade unions as much as they need schools What would you do with a mobile phone if all your friends were playing tag in the rain or watching Indian Idol Children and Media in India illuminates the experiences practices and contexts in which children and young people in diverse locations across India encounter make or make meaning from media in the course of their everyday lives From textbooks television film and comics to mobile phones and digital games this book examines the media available to different socioeconomic groups of children in India and their articulation with everyday cultures and routines An authoritative overview of theories and discussions about childhood agency social class caste and gender in India is followed by an analysis of films and television representations of childhood informed by qualitative interview data collected between 2005 and 2015 in urban small town and rural contexts with children aged nine to 17 The analysis uncovers and challenges widely held assumptions about the relationships among factors including sociocultural location media content and technologies and children's labour and agency The analysis casts doubt on undifferentiated claims about how new technologies affect endanger and or empower pointing instead to the importance of social class and caste in mediating relationships among children young people and the poor The analysis of children's narratives of daily work education caring and leisure supports the conclusion that although unrecognised and underrepresented subaltern children's agency and resourceful conservation makes a significant contribution to economic interpretive and social reproduction in India
