Give the Word: Responses to Werner Hamacher's "95 Theses on Philology" Werner Hamacher, 2019-06-01 Werner Hamacher s witty and elliptical 95 Theses on Philology challenges the humanities and particularly academic philology that assume language to be a given entity rather than an event In Give the Word eleven scholars of literature and philosophy Susan Bernstein Mich le Cohen Halimi Peter Fenves Sean Gurd Daniel Heller Roazen Jan Plug Gerhard Richter Avital Ronell Thomas Schestag Ann Smock and Vincent van Gerven Oei take up the challenge presented by Hamacher s theses At the close Hamacher responds to them in a spirited text that elaborates on the context of his 95 Theses and its rich theoretical and philosophical ramifications The 95 Theses included in this volume makes this collection a rich resource for the study and practice of radical philology Hamacher s philology interrupts and transforms parting with tradition precisely in order to remain faithful to its radical but increasingly occluded core The contributors test Hamacher s break with philology in a variety of ways attempting a philological practice that does not take language as an object of knowledge study or even love Thus in responding to Hamacher s Theses the authors approach language that because it can never be an object of any kind awakens an unfamiliar desire Taken together these essays problematize philological ontology in a movement toward radical reconceptualizations of labor action and historical time

The Christmas Cabin J.L. Jarvis, 2017-11-01

Crosscurrents Mindy Badía, Bonnie L. Gasior, 2006 The term crosscurrents seems especially fitting for a volume of essays that explores the cultural exchanges that resulted from the encounter between Spain and the New World The nautical metaphor alludes to the actual crossing of ships that occurred during the discovery conquest and colonization of the Americas by the Spanish as it emphasizes the changes that occurred at these cultural intersections

Vienna Tales Helen Constantine, 2014-11-13 Situated on the cusp of West and East between the foothills of the Alps and the mighty Blue Danube Vienna has long presented authors with a wealth of material for stories that entertain and intrigue The city s famous quality of life and rich variety of cultural offerings is apparent here at every turn but so too is its darker side whether it be the Viennese obsession with death and decay or the dramatic tragic events of its twentieth century history In stories from the early to mid nineteenth century in particular the city stands for wine women and song for a laid back perhaps somewhat lax outlook on life that is invariably linked to its location as German culture's southernmost centre. In more recent tales the theme of the good life and of Vienna's beauty continues but there are very few authors who do not dwell on elements of darkness or melancholy. Indeed from the mid-twentieth century onward death itself seems to have become literature's preferred guide to the city. The collection concentrates on stories set at the city's margins. The tales are arranged geographically rather than chronologically around and through the city from west to east and back again. We begin and end with Arthur Schnitzler and Joseph Roth two authors already indelibly associated with Vienna but represented here by little-known gems translated for the first time. Other authors include stars of Vienna's nineteenth-century feuilleton journalism Heinrich Laube Ferdinand Kürnberger Adalbert Stifter but also the most recent generation of Viennese writers Doron Rabinovici Eva Menasse Dimitr Dinev with tales as yet unknown in English.

Sue Atkins, 1981 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art, 1885 The Bull Rider's Return Joan Kilby, 2018-08-28

No good deed goes unpunished. Rough rider Cody Starr relishes his reputation as the bad boy on the rodeo circuit. When he impulsively leaves his prize money as a tip for a struggling waitress so her little boy can get a heart operation, Cody keeps quiet about it, knowing he's only atoning for past sins. His good deed is outed when Kelly Reid drives across three states to thank him in person. Despite the fact that Kelly forces him to confront his past and question everything, Cody starts to fall hard for her. Single mom Kelly Reid thinks Cody is a Hero with a capital H. She believes in Cody but she knows that nothing long-term can come of their intense attraction until he believes in himself. Is Cody the love-em-and-leave-em guy he claims to be, or could he possibly be the man of her dreams? Chocolate Woman Dreams the Milky Way Monique Mojica, Brenda Farnell, 2023-07-24

This volume documents the creation of Chocolate Woman Dreams the Milky Way, a play written and performed by Monique Mojica with collaborators from diverse disciplines. Inspired by the pictographic writing and mola textiles of the Guna, an indigenous people of Panama and Colombia, the book explores Mojica's unique approach to the performance process. Her method activates an indigenous theatrical process that privileges the body in contrast to Western theater's privileging of the written text and rethinks the role of land, body, and movement, as well as dramatic story structure and performance style. Co-authored with anthropologist Brenda Farnell, the book challenges the divide between artist and scholar and addresses the many levels of cultural disciplinary and linguistic translations required to achieve this. Placing the complex intellect inherent to Indigenous Knowledges at its center, the book engages Indigenous performance theory and concepts that link body, land, and story, such as terra nullius, corpus nullius, mapping, pattern, literacy.

land literacy and movement literacy Enhanced by contributions from other artists and scholars the book challenges Eurocentric ideologies about what counts as performance and what is required from an audience as well as long standing body mind dualisms
