Reconciliation Discourse Annelies Verdoolaege, 2008 This volume is a research monograph analysing the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC from an ethnographic linguistic point of view The central proposition of this book is that the TRC can be regarded as a mechanism that leads to the hegemony of specific discourses thus excercising power The analysis illustrates how through a certain type of reconciliation discourse constructed at the TRC hearings a reconciliation oriented reality took shape in post TRC South Africa Basically the study points to the long term implications a truth commission can exert on a traumatised post conflict society The book is unique on several levels TRC discourse is explored in depth on the basis of personal stories from TRC testifiers a combination of Poststructuralist and Critical Discourse Analysis approaches form the theoretical foundations and an extensive bibliography provides an impressive database of TRC publications US Nuclear Power Export Activities ,1976 Multichannel Communications Equipment Operator United States. Department of the Army,1980 Radiation Source Use and Replacement National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Nuclear and Radiation Studies Board, Committee on Radiation Source Use and Replacement, 2008-05-25 In the United States there are several thousand devices containing high activity radiation sources licensed for use in areas ranging from medical uses such as cancer therapy to safety uses such as testing of structures and industrial equipment Those radiation sources are licensed by the U S Nuclear Regulatory Commission and state agencies Concerns have been raised about the safety and security of the radiation sources particularly amid fears that they could be used to create dirty bombs or radiological dispersal device RDD In response to a request from Congress the U S Nuclear Regulatory Commission asked the National Research Council to conduct a study to review the uses of high risk radiation sources and the feasibility of replacing them with lower risk alternatives The study concludes that the U S government should consider factors such as potential economic consequences of misuse of the radiation sources into its assessments of risk Although the committee found that replacements of most sources are possible it is not economically feasible in some cases The committee recommends that the U S government take steps to in the near term to replace radioactive cesium chloride radiation sources a potential dirty bomb ingredient used in some medical and research equipment with lower risk alternatives. The committee further recommends that longer term efforts be undertaken to replace other sources The book presents a number of options for making those replacements ERDA. .1976 Developing Inclusive Environments in Education: Global Practices and Curricula Koreeda, Kiyoji, Tsuge, Masayoshi, Ikuta, Shigeru, Dalton, Elizabeth Minchin, Ewe, Linda Plantin, 2023-06-29 Inclusive education remains a significant challenge in today s educational landscape as K 12 classrooms and higher education institutions struggle to meet the diverse needs of all students To address this pressing issue Developing Inclusive Environments in Education Global Practices and Curricula led by Kiyoji Koreeda offers practical strategies and insights The book explores the Universal Design for Learning UDL framework providing a comprehensive guide to making learning inclusive and transformative It showcases global examples of universal design curricula and highlights the use of educational technologies to facilitate inclusive learning experiences By focusing on practical activities and support systems the book empowers educators to build inclusive classrooms and higher education settings offering detailed descriptions of useful tools and software for personalized teaching materials and reasonable accommodations Developing Inclusive Environments in Education is an essential resource for researchers and educators committed to fostering inclusive practices and creating transformative educational environments Embracing the strategies and insights presented in this book allows researchers and educators to revolutionize their approach to education They can create inclusive environments that support the success and well being of every student ensuring that no one is left behind By adopting the practical guidance and leveraging the examples provided educators can implement inclusive practices and transform their classrooms and educational settings to meet the diverse needs of learners worldwide This transformative approach empowers educators to utilize advanced curricula leverage educational technologies and implement personalized teaching materials and accommodations ultimately creating an environment where all students can thrive Developing Inclusive Environments in Educationserves as a valuable resource equipping educators with the necessary knowledge and tools to build inclusive and transformative educational environments Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications .1978 Truth Commissions and Transitional Societies Eric Wiebelhaus-Brahm, 2010-01-05 Despite the increasing frequency of truth commissions there has been little agreement as to their long term impact on a state s political and social development This book uses a multi method approach to examine the impact of truth commissions on subsequent human rights protection and democratic practice Providing the first cross national analysis of the impact of truth commissions and presenting detailed analytical case studies on South Africa El Salvador Chile and Uganda author Eric Wiebelhaus Brahm examines how truth commission investigations and their final reports have shaped the respective societies The author demonstrates that in the longer term truth commissions have often had appreciable effects on human rights but more limited impact in terms of democratic development The book concludes by considering how future research can build upon these findings to provide policymakers with strong recommendations on whether and how a truth commission is likely to help fragile post conflict societies This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Transition Justice Human Rights Peace and Conflict Studies Democratization Studies International Law and International Relations U.S. nuclear power export activities United States.
