World At War :

The World at War Tim McNeese, 2000-09-01 The World at War 1920-1945 covers the period from the signing of the Versailles Treaty which signaled the end of World War I through World War II and the defeat of Japan. Special emphasis is given to the stressed postwar economies of Europe following the Great War which set the stage for further international conflict. The Roaring Twenties, the stock market crash of 1929, The Great Depression, Roosevelt's New Deal, the rise of fascism and the grim legacies of the Holocaust figure prominently in this volume. Also discussed is the influence of historic personalities such as Hitler, Stalin, Churchill, Roosevelt and Mussolini. Challenging map exercises and provocative review questions encourage meaningful reflection and historical analysis.

A World at War, 1911-1949, 2019-03-27 In A World At War 1911-1949, leading and emerging scholars of the cultural history of the two world wars begin to break down the traditional barriers between the historiographies of the two conflicts, identifying commonalities as well as casting new light on each as part of a broader mission in honour of Professor John Horne to expand the boundaries of academic exploration of warfare in the 20th century. Utilizing techniques and approaches developed by cultural historians of the First World War, this volume showcases and explores four crucial themes relating to the socio-cultural attributes and representation of war that cut across both the First and Second World Wars: cultural mobilization, the nature and depiction of combat, the experience of civilians under fire and the different meanings of victory and defeat. Contributors are Annette Becker, Robert Dale, Alex Dowdall, Robert Gerwarth, John Horne, Tom's Irish, Heather Jones, Alan Kramer, Edward Madigan, Anthony McElligott, Michael S. Neiberg, John Paul Newman, Catriona Pennell, Filipe Ribeiro de Menezes, Daniel Todman and Jay Winter. See inside the book.

An Imperial World at War Ashley Jackson, Yasmin Khan, Gajendra Singh, 2016-07-01 At the start of the Second World War, Britain was at the height of its imperial power and it is no surprise that it drew upon the global resources of the Empire once war had been declared. Whilst this international aspect of Britain's war effort has been well studied in relation to the military contribution of individual dominions and colonies, relatively little has been written about the Empire as a whole. As such, An Imperial World at War makes an important contribution to the historiography relating to the British Empire and its wartime experience. It argues that the war needs to be viewed in imperial terms; that the role of forces drawn from the Empire is poorly understood and that the war's impact on colonial societies is barely grasped at all in conventional accounts. Through a series of case studies, the volume demonstrates the fundamental role played by the Empire in Britain's war effort and highlights some of the consequences for both Britain and its imperial territories. Themes include the recruitment and utilization of military formations drawn from imperial territories, the experience of British forces stationed overseas, the use of strategic bases located in the colonies, British policy in the Middle East and the challenge posed by growing American power, the occupation of enemy colonies and the enemy occupation of British colonies, colonial civil defence measures, financial support for the war effort supplied by the Empire and the commemoration of the war. The Afterword anticipates a new decentred history of the war that properly acknowledges the role and importance of people and places throughout the colonial and semi colonial world This volume emanates from a conference organized as part of the Home Fronts of the Empire Commonwealth project The project was generously funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and led by Yasmin Khan and Ashley Jackson with Gajendra Singh as Postdoctoral Research Assistant Americans in a World at War Brooke L. Blower,2023 Americans in a World at War tells the panoramic and often surprising story of seven worldly Americans their personal histories their politics and the paths that led them to board a Pan American Airways seaplane bound for Lisbon in February 1943 When the Yankee Clipper crashed in the Tagus River it took numerous lives but left a paper trail that leads to a richer deeper understanding of Americans diverse global commitments during the first half of the twentieth century as well as how the Second World War would transform those engagements Civilians in a World at War, 1914-1918 Tammy M. Proctor,2010-08-30 This work explores the different ways civilians work and function in a war situation and broadens our understanding of the civilian to encompass munitions workers nurses laundresses refugees aid workers and children who lived and worked in occupied zones on home and battle fronts and in the spaces in between Global in scope spanning the Eastern Western Italian East African and Mediterranean fronts the author examines in detail the role of experts in the war the use of forced labor and the experiences of children in the combatant countries As in many wars civilians on both sides of WWI were affected and vast displacements of the populations shaped the contemporary world in countless ways redrawing boundaries and creating or reviving lines of ethnic conflict The World at War (ENHANCED eBook) Tim McNeese,2000-09-01 The World at War 1920 1945 covers the period from the signing of the Versailles Treaty which signaled the end of World War I through World War II and the defeat of Japan Special emphasis is given to the stressed postwar economies of Europe following the Great War which set the stage for further international conflict The Roaring Twenties the stock market crash of 1929 The Great Depression Roosevelt s New Deal the rise of fascism and the grim legacies of the Holocaust figure prominently in this volume Also discussed is the influence of historic personalities such as Hitler Stalin Churchill Roosevelt and Mussolini Challenging map exercises and provocative review questions encourage meaningful reflection and historical analysis Advanced Studies in Media Joe Nicholas,John Price,1998 Advanced Studies in Media has been designed to offer a comprehensive and stimulating textbook for all students on advanced level media studies and communications studies courses The World at War Mark Arnold-Forster,2001 The Second World War was the largest and most appalling military conflagration in history It killed millions of people It destroyed much of the old Europe It altered the world balance of political and economic power Its consequences are incalculable and are everywhere with us still In his now classic book The World at War Mark Arnold Forster tells the story of the War in a simple bold and highly readable way He illuminates each of the main theatres individually so that the complex development of the various campaigns can be easily followed Making use of original documents as well as first hand interviews he has produced a history which is both authoritative and intensely vivid Originally written to accompany the Thames Television series of the same name The World at War has since been fully revised and now for the first time includes a substantial introduction by Richard Overby which brings to bear the most recent scholarship and ensures that the book remains one of the best possible accounts of this cataclysmic period The World at War Richard Holmes, 2011 Originally broadcast in 1973 the landmark television series The World at War tells the story of the Second World War through the testimony of key participants This book uses the interviews from the series along with many that never made the final cut to weave a narrative of the war American Women in a World at War Judy Barrett Litoff, David Clayton Smith, 1997 This title brings together twenty five writings by women who share their rich and varied World War II experiences from serving in the military to working on the home front to preparing for the postwar world By providing evidence of their active and resourceful roles in the war effort as workers wives and mothers these women offer eloquent testimony that World War II was indeed everybody's war Litoff and Smith combine pieces by well known writers such as Margaret Culkin Banning and Nancy Wilson Ross with important but largely forgotten personal accounts by ordinary women living in extraordinary times This volume is divided into the six sections listed below

Nwaneri, 2012-10-09 OUR MISSION IN THESE SIX BOOKS 1 Growing Decline in World Peace We started our long journey in these six Books with an expression of concern over the growing decline in world peace Our Mission throughout our Six Books had therefore focused on our views on how the state of World Peace can be advanced 2 Enhancing unity between Christianity and Secularity We expressed at the beginning of our first Book that one major source of the growing decline in world peace is the on going wars and crises between the Religious and Secular worlds of today This source of global crises had been acknowledged in a recent conference of global Religious Leaders held in Assisi at the invitation of Pope Benedict XVI The Conference participants resolved unanimously to address this source of crises in world peace Global Secular Leaders had also expressed much concern on the growing decline in world peace They did so again at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in New York 3 Our Mission to contribute to Pope Benedict XVI's New Evangelization In our view the recent launching of the New Evangelization by Pope Benedict XVI reflected in part the resolution of Religious Leaders in the Assisi Conference to find ways of addressing the growing decline in world peace due partly to Religious conflicts with Secularity across the world The Pope called on all Lay members of the Catholic Church and Christians in general to contribute to the success of the Popes New Evangelization PCNE As we expressed throughout our six books our mission in these Books is to respond to the call by Pope Benedict XVI 4 Military and Secular Perspectives on the Religious and Secular Peace We stated clearly from the start that our contribution would reflect on the military and secular aspects of the growing conflicts between Christianity and Secularity using the global experience in both sectors by our Author throughout his career We had to take these perspectives because we must identify the source leadership and strategies in the wars and conflicts between the Religious and Secular worlds Unless we know the leaders in the conflicts and their missions we cannot achieve any progress in resolving these wars and crises and enhance the level of world peace 5 My Background A few words of introduction on my background may enable the Reader understand my perspectives in these Books I started the project of writing the Books because I am convinced that I can contribute to the PCNE by bringing my African background in Nigeria education at the London School of Economics and exposure to global secular governance through my position as a former Economic Adviser with The U K Government and a Senior Economist at The World Bank 6 Is anything wro
