World Investment Report 1994:

World Investment Report ,2000      Global Transformations David Held,1999 In this book the authors set forth a new model of globalization that lays claims to supersede existing models and then use this model to assess the way the processes of globalization have operated in different historic periods in respect to political organization military globalization trade finance corporate productivity migration culture and the environment Each of these topics is covered in a chapter which contrasts the contemporary nature of globalization with that of earlier epochs In mapping the shape and political consequences of globalization the authors concentrate on six states in advanced capitalist societies SIACS the United States the United Kingdom Sweden France Germany and Japan For comparative purposes other states particularly those with developing economics are referred to and discussed where relevant The book concludes by systematically describing and assessing contemporary globalization and appraising the implications of globalization for the sovereignty and autonomy of SIACS It also confronts directly the political fatalism that surrounds much discussion of globalization with a normative agenda that elaborates the possibilities for democratizing and civilizing the unfolding global transformation      International Investment Instruments United Nations Conference on Trade and Development. Division on Transnational Corporations and Investment,United Nations Conference on Trade and Development. Division on Investment, Technology, and Enterprise Development,2005 This is the 14th volume in the series which contains a collection of international instruments relating to foreign direct investment FDI and transnational corporations TNCs It is divided into two parts which cover investment related provisions in three free trade agreements and a framework agreement not covered in previous volumes and the text of a number of additional prototype bilateral treaties for the promotion and protection of foreign investments BITs not covered in previous volumes      The Global City Saskia Sassen,2025-09-09 In her classic book The Global City Saskia Sassen tells how New York London and Tokyo became command centers of the emerging global economy and in the process underwent massive and parallel changes The book reorients the way we think about how cities shape and are shaped by globalization and provides lessons for the future      The Case Against the Global Economy Jerry Mander,2014-02-25 The greatest political debate of our time is about the blind rush towards a single global economy its consequences for jobs democracy human well being and cultural diversity and its impact on the natural world that sustains us Its effects will be profound and irreversible but globalization itself is not inevitable In The Case Against the Global Economy 24 leading economic agricultural cultural and environmental authorities drawn from across the world argue that free trade and economic globalization are producing exactly the opposite results to those promised From a detailed analysis of the new global economy its structures and its full social and ecological implications they show how it is undermining our liberty our security and our well being and is devastating the planet First published in the USA in 1996 in an edition focused on North America the book won the American Political Science Association award for the Best Book in Ecological and Transformational

Politics This completely revised and updated international edition presents a passionate and persuasive case for the need to reverse course away from globalization and towards a revitalized democracy local self sufficiency and ecological health

Investment Treaties and the Legal Imagination Nicolás M. Perrone,2021 This book brings a new perspective to the subject of international investment law by tracing the origins of foreign investor rights It shows how a group of business leaders bankers and lawyers in the mid twentieth century paved the way for our current system of foreign investment relations and the investor state dispute settlement mechanism

The Politics of the Real World Real World Coalition, 2014-06-03 Many people today feel that something has gone wrong with British society and British politics The quality of life seems to be declining Crime soars Traffic and pollution spiral Mass unemployment is undiminished while many people experience insecurity and stress at work Growing poverty and inequality have left many of Britain's citizens excluded from mainstream society Everywhere the sense of community seems to be breaking down In the world as a whole poverty and conflict cause immense suffering and threaten the security of nations Global environmental degradation from the greenhouse effect to the destruction of rainforests makes the very future of the planet uncertain Yet the political system seems barely to register what is happening It is hardly surprising that public disillusionment with politicians and Parliament has never been higher The Politics of the Real World addresses these interlocking crises Setting out the issues clearly it explains how conventional economic and social policies are creating the problems we face not solving them Arguing that the British political system itself needs rejuvenating it proposes a new direction for the UK in an increasingly globalised world
