Worst Ideas Ever A Celebration Of Embarrassment:

Worst Ideas Ever Daniel B. Kline, Jason Tomaszewski, 2011-07-08 From memorable disasters such as New Coke the XFL and Tiger Woods marriage to less remembered failures such as Yugo Cop Rock and Microsoft's BOB Worst Ideas Ever revisits history's biggest blunders Whether it's a pop culture failure the likes of Dennis Miller's disastrous run on Monday Night Football a political one such as John Edwards' odd decision to run for president while cheating on his cancer stricken wife or a technological misstep such as Apple's Newton OS Worst Ideas Ever uncovers the ridiculous stories behind mistakes so huge you'll have to constantly remind yourself that they actually happened Moving from Mariah Carey's performance in Glitter to the Minnesota Vikings decision to trade away their future for an aging Herschel Walker Worst Ideas Ever offers the real stories behind some of the dumbest things ever done Whether it was ego Michael Jordan leaving basketball for baseball greed nobody questioning their impossibly high returns when investing with Bernie Madoff or simple stupidity Jay Leno moving to 10 p.m. Worst Ideas Ever brings it all back in hilarious detail Latino History Day by Day Caryn E.

Neumann, Tammy S. Allen, 2013-05-09 This title takes a calendrical approach to illuminating the history of Latinos and life in the United States and adds more value than a simple this day in history through primary source excerpts and resources for further research Latino a history has been relatively slow in gaining recognition despite the population's rich and varied history Engaging and informative Latino History Day by Day A Reference Guide to Events will help address that oversight Much more than just a this day in history list the guide describes important events in Latino a history augmenting many entries with a brief excerpt from a primary document All entries include two annotated books and websites as key resources for follow up The day to day reference is organized by the 365 days of the year with each day drawing from events that span several hundred years of Latino a history from Mexican Americans to Puerto Ricans to Cuban Americans With this guide in hand teachers will be able to more easily incorporate Latino a history into their classes Students will find the book an easy to use guide to the Latino a past and an ideal starting place for research The Bright Side of Shame Claude-Hélène

Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2019-04-25 This book provides new ideas on how to work with and constructively transform shame on a theoretical and practical level and in various socio cultural contexts and professions It provides practical guidelines on dealing with shame on the basis of reflection counselling models exercises simulations specific psychotherapeutic approaches and auto didactical learning material so as to transform shame from a negatively experienced emotion into a mental health resource The book challenges theorists to adopt an interdisciplinary stance and to think outside the box Further it provides practitioners such as coaches counsellors therapists trainers and medical personnel with practical tools for transforming negative experiences and emotions In brief the book shows practitioners how to unlock the growth potential of individuals teams and organisations allowing them to develop constructively and positively Gay Shame David M. Halperin, Valerie Traub, 2009 Ever since the 1969 Stonewall Riots gay pride has been the rallying cry of the gay rights movement and the political force behind the emergence of the field of lesbian and gay studies But has something been lost forgotten or buried beneath the drive to transform homosexuality from a perversion to a proud social identity Have the political requirements of gay pride repressed discussion of the more uncomfortable or undignified aspects of homosexuality Gay Shame seeks to lift this unofficial ban on the investigation of homosexuality and shame by presenting critical work from the most vibrant frontier in contemporary queer studies An esteemed list of contributors tackles a range of issues questions of emotion disreputable sexual histories dissident gender identities and embarrassing figures and moments in gay history as they explore the possibility of reclaiming shame as a new even productive way to examine lesbian and gay culture Accompanied by a DVD collection of films performances and archival imagery Gay Shame constitutes nothing less than a major redefinition and revitalization of the field

No Shame for the Sun Shahla Haeri, 2002-11-01 This groundbreaking work sheds new light on the status conflicts and social realities of educated Muslim women in Pakistan Six candid interviews introduce readers to a class of professional Muslim women that is rarely if ever acknowledged in the West These women tell of conflicts and compromises with family kin and community while facing violence archaic marriage rules and locally entrenched codes of conduct With brave eloquence they speak of human dignity and gender equality of economic deprivation and social justice and of feminism and fundamentalism Challenging stereotypes No Shame for the Sun reveals the uniqueness of each person and diversity in the life experience of Pakistani Muslim women including their world views and the struggles to change their society Through their struggles professional Pakistani women have become conscious of their own and other women's situations in their country Because they exercise power and authority in their chosen fields they risk losing their families support and antagonizing their communities Carefully detailed and meticulously researched this book offers a much needed perspective on the changing circumstances of Pakistani women along with a view of established patterns and structural constraints within Pakistan On a broader level it examines Western misconceptions regarding Islam a religion that crosses many borders and cultures

The Humiliation of the Word Jacques Ellul, 2021-10-14 Western people no longer hear everything is grasped by sight They no longer speak they show Jacques Ellul Well known for his many books on sociology and theology Jacques Ellul creatively braids these two strands together in this provocative examination of how reality which is visual has superseded truth which is verbal in modern times Ellul explores biblical texts for distinguishing visual cultural forms from the communicative divine and human Word then examines how this distinction plays out with the rise of audiovisual media in the 20th century West Even in human speech visual forms dominate contemporary life and devalue the word this insight informs discussion of the image word clash in religion politics and art After a scathing critique of present day idolatry Ellul places his hope for nonviolent community in the fragile spoken word Ultimately Ellul sees the Bible as presenting a hopeful vision of reconciliation between visual reality and spoken truth A new afterword by Jacob Marques Rollison contextualizes Ellul's stance within French postmodern thought illuminating Humiliation of the Word as an outspokenly Protestant communication ethic in contemporary philosophical and theological discussions of language The Awkward Spaces of Fathering Stuart C. Aitken, 2016-03-23 Societal notions of fathers have evolved from the distant breadwinner through genial dad and masculine role model to today's equal co parent This book seeks to explore the spaces and movements of men as fathers Weaving together theories of space sexuality and political identity with the stories of fathers from a range of sources including popular culture it discusses the way in which geographies of space can disconnect and disempower fathers while societal notions marginalize and disassociate them from raising children It explores how fathering identities are shaped by family and community spaces and aims to move the definition of fathering beyond its definition in opposition to mothering In doing so it provides insights into the contradictory nature of father's lives and argues that rather than moving away from the traditional notions of masculine roles that the emotional work of fathering in itself is an heroic act No Shame Laura Belbin, 2022-07-21 Shame shame we know your name Do we own it Being a woman that is Do we fuck We live in fear of how we look what we eat how we age and what we do Wow it's 2022 and we're still churning out that same old shit I've been told as you get older you care less Fucking great I can't wait to be menopausal with skunk like grey track lines in my hair saggy tits and miserable as shit I don't know about you but I'd quite like to have that experience the no fucks experience that is now before that all happens To have the confidence to believe in who I am It's a push we all have to make whether it be in our confidence over our bodies who we are as people or what goes on inside our mind and we all have to work at it It's baby steps So let's take it back to those tiny steps because all mountains that are climbed don't happen without practice perseverance self belief and a fuck ton of work Anger, Guilt and Shame - Reclaiming Power and Choice Liv Larsson, 2012-08-23 This book can help you make shame guilt and anger your allies instead of our enemies They can become keys to your inner life and to your dreams Getting to know these feelings will help you better meet your needs for respect acceptance belonging and freedom What would be possible if you no longer needed to shrink yourself to avoid shame or guilt Honor and Shame in Early China Mark Edward Lewis, 2020-12-10 Lewis sheds new light on the early Chinese empires through an ambitious examination of evolving ideas about honor and shame From Shame to Sin Kyle Harper, 2013-06-10 The transformation of the Roman world from polytheistic to Christian is one of the most sweeping ideological changes of premodern history At the center was sex Kyle Harper examines how Christianity changed the ethics of sexual behavior from shame to sin and shows how the roots of modern sexuality are grounded in an ancient religious revolution Ski Films Bryan Senn, 2022-05-16 Skiing in movies like the sport itself grew more prevalent beginning in the 1930s when it was a pastime of the elite with depictions reflecting changes in technique fashion and social climate World War II saw skiing featured in a dozen films dealing with that conflict Fueled by postwar prosperity the sport exploded in the 1950s filmmakers followed suit using scenes on snow covered slopes for panoramic beauty and the thrill of the chase Through the free spirited 1960s and 1970s the downhill lifestyle shushed into everything from spy thrillers to beach party romps The extreme sports era of the 1980s and 1990s brought snowboarding to the big screen This first ever critical history of skiing in film chronicles a century of alpine cinema with production information and stories and quotes from directors actors and stuntmen

How Many Lightbulbs Does It Take to Change a Person? Rhonda Rhea,2011-11-01 All of us search for light We seek enlightenment understanding and answers We seek hope So many people grope through smothering spiritual darkness reaching for something to bring light into their lives Some even think they ve found it in other things After all it would be easy for a blind person to think he s found light if he s never seen it or experienced it for himself But there is only one way to find the light we really need and to be able to live the Christian life in successful obedience and that is to let the true Light flood our hearts Fruitful joy filled victorious living happens only as we are spiritually enlightened through the truth of the Word of God and by the inner working of the Spirit of God Through humor and stories Rhonda Rhea explores many of the almost 300 references to light in the Bible to draw us back to the real light found in Christ This light is the only light that can provide change in our lives and is ultimately not just a light that changes us but the lives of those we come in contact with as well

Why the Church? Hans Joas,2024-10-01 Why did Christianity produce the special organizational form church in the first place Is it possible to be a Christian without the church To what extent is Christian faith in community with other believers an alternative to the mere self optimization of individuals In this accessible and questioning new work Hans Joas traverses theological church historical sociological and ethical territory in search of a viable conception of the church adequate to contemporary globalized societies Across eleven essays that draw on work by Ernst Troeltsch Max Weber Emile Durkheim H Richard Niebuhr Leszek Kolakowski and others Joas reflects on key debates from the failure of so called secularization theory to explain religiosity in modern society to the role of Christianity and the church in relation to rampant nationalism and refugee crises and to the question of whether or not human dignity ever was or still is the highest value in the West Addressing the sociology of the church as the distinctive communal formation of Christianity for the last two millennia Joas underscores the need for Christian conceptions of church to balance theological sensibility with concrete sociological grounding In the process he considers the relation of a community of faith to contemporary ideas about the optimization of life
