Teaching Literature Ben Knights, 2017-10-05
 This book comprises reflections by experienced scholar teachers on the principles and practice of higher education English teaching In approaching the subject from different angles it aims to spark insights and to foster imaginative teaching In the era of audit and the Teaching Excellence Framework it invites teachers to return to the sources of their own teaching knowledge The shift from a student centred to a research centred paradigm has particular implications for a discipline which prides itself on its teaching and has always had teaching and dialogue at its heart One which also talks across the tertiary secondary border to the cognate though different subject called English in school The argument which informs this book and which is developed in the individual chapters is that the future of the subject relies not alone upon fostering communities of research excellence but on re awakening and reviving its pedagogic traditions
