Myers,1845 The Apocalypse Fulfilled; Or, An Answer to Apocalyptic Sketches by Dr. Cumming Philip Charles Soulbien Desprez,1855 Passionate Bureaucrat, The: Lessons For The 21st Century From 4,500 Years Of Public Service Reform Max Everest-phillips,2018-06-28

Effective and impartial public administration is the foundation of state legitimacy This was understood 4 500 years ago when Urukagina the ruler of a small country in Mesopotamia proclaimed the first known reform of public service The quality of public administration will be even more important in the 21st century Successful states will be those that recognise public service as a key determinant of national competitive advantage That realisation will generate a radical change in the image of the civil servant from dull uninspired public official to passionate advocate of the common good This transformation will be the product of the complex challenges arising from the interweaving of globalisation with the 4th Industrial Revolution These and related developments are forcing governments around the world to search for public service that can respond to the unprecedented range of opportunities and threats emerging from a rapidly evolving international context In an increasingly frenetic world ruled by Wicked Ostriches and Black Elephants governments require a civil service capable of achieving five outcomes i unlocking the creativity and collaborative spirit needed to solve complex problems ii overcoming the fallacy that the private sector is inherently more innovative and efficient than the public service iii developing societies that are perceived by their citizens as fair iv fostering the trust of citizens in their governments and v bolstering the legitimacy of the state The author who is Director of the United Nations Development Programme s Global Centre for Public Service Excellence in Singapore suggests that these interconnected aims will result in a new phenomenon the public recognition by political leaders and citizens that future prosperity political stability environmental sustainability and social cohesion are dependent on committed and creative civil servants passionate about promoting the long term national interest I shall pass through this world but once Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it now Let me not defer or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again Mahatma Gandhi To End All Wars: A 21st Century Guide to Peace Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-08

War has been a part of the human experience for centuries It has been waged for countless reasons from territorial disputes to religious differences to economic gain And while some wars have been fought for just causes many others have been fought for nothing more than power and greed In recent years the world has witnessed a growing number of conflicts both large and small From the ongoing civil war in Syria to the rise of ISIS in Iraq and Syria to the escalating tensions between Russia and Ukraine it seems like there is no shortage of reasons for people to fight But what if there was a way to end war What if there was a way to create a world where people could live together in peace and harmony This book is about that possibility It is about the power of nonviolence and the importance of peace It is about the responsibility of each and every one of us to work towards a more just and equitable world This book is a call to action It is a call to end war and to build a more peaceful world It is a call to all of us to work together to create a better future for ourselves and for our children We can do this We can end war We can build a more peaceful world Let us start today About the Author Pasquale De Marco is a writer activist and peacebuilder He has worked with a variety of organizations to promote peace and nonviolence around the world He is the author of several books including To End All Wars A 21st Century Guide to Peace If you like this book write a review on google books *beyond the museum walls.
