So What's the Big Deal About Communion? Toby Crain,2021-02-13 Have you ever wondered why Communion is practiced differently from one place to another or often not at all Maybe you learned about it at an early age or were introduced to it later when you began following Jesus as an adult Today many Christians practice the sacrament of Communion though not all and have never been introduced to the history and significance behind what Jesus instituted for us at the Last Supper Most understand its significance yet only as it leads one back to the Cross But why the Cross Why did Jesus choose the very specific Jewish festival of Passover as the setting for changing the world And more importantly why did He have to die Whatever your beliefs or understandings about Communion or the Lord s Supper take a walk with the author on the journey of discovery down the roads of tradition and truth to unveil God s amazing purpose for the Church through the practice of Communion and why He wants to be sure you experience it too Presented in a thoughtful yet lighthearted tone So What s the Big Deal About Communion leads readers in understanding and unraveling many of the myths and traditions surrounding this special and important meal and more importantly helps us all to more effectively prepare for and enjoy this unique gift of Jesus to all His followers
