Worldview The Right Perspectives:

Religion and Worldviews in Education Liam Gearon, Arniika Kuusisto, Saila Poulter, Auli Toom, Martin Ubani, 2023-07-21

This timely book offers a critically important contribution to debates around the meeting place of religious and secular worldviews in education. Edited by five leading figures in the field and drawing on expert international scholarship and research, the book provides cutting edge analysis that bridges the religious and secular in global educational contexts. Considering the role of the United Nations, UNESCO, OECD and PISA in varied international contexts, the book draws on critical analysis of primary empirical research and secondary critique to offer a coherent blend of theoretically complex yet practical analysis of policy implementation. Throughout this accessible and logically structured volume, the authors assert that the meeting place of religious and secular worldviews is one of the most important and pressing issues for religion in education. As a field defining work of research into education, religion and worldviews, the book will be essential reading for scholars, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of religious education, religious studies, philosophy of education and international education.

Perspective Charles Gaines, 2006-12 Perspective is a story about the birth of a nation with divine purpose, how it lost that perspective, and how America can become a united and like-minded people under God once again. Christian.

Worldviews John Valk, 2021-10-01 This book investigates the concept of worldview in its numerous aspects and how worldviews impact, shape and influence individuals, communities, societies and cultures. It explores various worldviews, religious, spiritual and secular, using a comprehensive approach to highlight their breadth, depth and scope. John Valk argues that everyone has a worldview and that worldview is often shaped and influenced by individual circumstances and situations. While worldviews have similar structures to one another, they vary in content, including differences in metanarratives, teachings, ethics and more. In the course of explaining how worldviews respond to life's ultimate and existential challenges, the book poses ontological questions to highlight various world views on the nature of being and the human and epistemological questions pertaining to sources of knowledge and certainty. Inviting readers to reflect on their own worldviews as they explore the worldviews of others, Valk also reveals how certain universal worldview beliefs are interpreted in particular contexts.

Comprehensive Global Perspective: An Illuminating Worldview Tiffany Twain, 2013-01-24 This was the original magnum opus of Earth Manifesto understandings. This book contains entertaining stories, incisive insights, philosophical introspections and biggest picture perspectives of all the great issues that face human beings and our civilizations today.

The Jaina Worldview Lucas den Boer, 2023-06-30 This book is an analysis of the philosophical chapters of the Tattv rth dhigama TA, a foundational text for the Jaina tradition and the first text that presented the Jaina worldview in a clear and systematic way. The book also includes the first English translation of its oldest commentary, the Tattv rth dhigamabh ya TABh. Focusing on the philosophical sections of the TA and TABh, which deviate from the traditional views and introduce several new concepts for the Jaina tradition, the analysis suggests that the TA and the TABh were written by different authors and that both texts contain several historical layers. The texts reflect aspects of the concurrent intellectual movements and the textual analysis includes comparisons with the views of other schools such as the Nyaya and Vaishika traditions and offers an in-depth analysis of the philosophical content of these works. The appendix contains an English translation from the original Sanskrit text of the TA and provides the first English translation of the commentary on these passages from the TABh. Situating the text in the wider history of Indian philosophy, the book offers a better understanding of the role of the Jainas in the history of Indian thought. It will be of interest to those studying Indian philosophy, Indian thought, and Asian religions.

Global Perspectives on Reproductive Rights and Policies Pucelj, Maja, Matusiak-Frączak, Magdalena, 2024-11-29. Reproductive rights and policies seek to balance different human rights, ethics, and morals, as well as technology. At the same time, they concern probably the most intimate sphere of human life. Issues related to reproductive rights are the subject of intensive public debate in which not only politicians but also many nongovernmental organizations, NGOs, and even religious groups take part. All of these actors present essential arguments which should be taken into account when discussing reproductive rights. Global Perspectives on Reproductive Rights and Policies comprehensively examines reproductive rights as an essential component of human rights. It offers an in-depth analysis of legal frameworks as well as the ethical implications and societal consequences associated with these rights. Covering topics such as abortion policies, legal frameworks, and women's rights, this book is an excellent resource for researchers, academicians, legal professionals, healthcare professionals, ethicists, policymakers, international organizations, and NGOs.

International Perspective on Indigenous Religious Rights Claude Gélinas, Raphaël Mathieu Legault-Laberge, Sébastien Lebel-Grenier, 2023-12-18. What is the status of indigenous religious rights in the world today? Despite important legal advances in the protection of indigenous religious beliefs and practices at the international and national levels, there are still many obstacles to the full implementation of these provisions. Using a unique large-scale comparative approach, this book aims to identify the fundamental issues that characterize the law of indigenous religions in several countries, as well as certain avenues that may prove useful in state implementation of the provisions of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples regarding practice, promotion, transmission, protection, and access to spiritual heritage.

Children on the Trail Sandra J. Sutherland, 2022-08-15. If you're starting a new children's ministry, strengthening an existing one, or wanting to be more intentional with the spiritual nurture you give your child or grandchild, Children on the Trail can help. Even though it provides a clear progression for the spiritual formation of children, it offers more guidance by principle than an oversimplified step-by-step approach.

Peace Education and Religion: Perspectives, Pedagogy, Policies Marcia Hermansen, Ednan Aslan, Evrim Erşan Akkılıç, 2022-10-02. Whether formally incorporated into curriculum and teacher training or informally integrated in contexts such as state or NGO initiatives dealing with resolving social, ethnic, and religious conflicts, peace education is increasingly recognized as a critical component in addressing violence in contemporary plural societies Peace education can constructively undertake a reframing of historical narratives while inspiring practical community activities An important but insufficiently studied and theorized aspect of peace education is the role of religion The challenge to peace education in today s globalized diverse mobile and religiously pluralistic world is to be able to take both complex global and distinctive local situations into account The contributions to this integrative collection of essays provide exactly these local and global perspectives on the state of peace education and its relationship to religion across pedagogy and curriculum state policies and activism within societies on the front lines of resolving internal conflicts whether historical or recent that often reflect aspects of religious identities

Worldview as Worship Eddie Karl Baumann,2011-08-01 The goal of many evangelical educators is to facilitate biblical thinking and the worldview transformation of their students Yet aside from upholding a set of moral behaviors or maintaining positions on issues perceived to be Christian the goals and aspirations of most evangelical young people differ little from their unbelieving peers As George Barna has noted We have a generation coming up that isn t looking at Christianity to answer spiritual concerns We either change or we lose them Worldview as Worship contends that the approach taken by most evangelical educators to the issue of worldview transformation has neglected to address two fundamental components of worldviews First that our initial worldviews are not philosophical systems but rather faith dispositions and that worldview transformation cannot simply present the biblical worldview as a more rational or logical system but must address issues of the heart as well as the mind Second unlike philosophies that are individual worldviews are communal and are learned and transformed within the context of community practice Appealing to Paul s teaching in Romans 12 1 2 Worldview as Worship approaches the renewing of your mind as the result of the believer s presentation of themselves as a holy sacrifice which is your spiritual service of worship The book advocates an approach to worldview transformation that focuses on believers as apprentices rather than simply as students an approach that holds true to the biblical model of discipleship As a result worldview transformation works best when the application of faith to the issues of learning and life are modeled by the faith community and where students are given the opportunity to put faith into practice Perspectives on Nursing Theory

Pamela G. Reed,Nelma B. Crawford Shearer,2009 This book is an anthology of classic and contemporary nursing articles that address various theoretical and philosophical perspectives on the nature of theory and knowledge development It is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the important discussions taking place regarding the structures and processes of knowledge building in nursing

Rebuild Your Worldview to be Healthy James W. Stark, 2004 Our world has been maintaining a destructive path for humankind with our continued use of force to resolve human issues We are continuing to move downhill toward greater violence To stop violence we must build healthier personal and social worldviews A quest for the truth beyond the self community and our worldviews needs to be implemented We will need to improve our ability to think rationally Most of all we will need to learn how to intelligently use God s gift of freedom Since our personal worldviews are our standards of reference for truth for designing and building our worldviews we can only reach for and estimate the truth through non threatening dialogue We have been conditioned to forcefully defend fixed worldviews which are not healthy Healthier worldviews are needed to implement non violent intentional change to the worldviews of every individual every organization every community and every dominating system Healthier worldviews would lead to an integrated transformation of science religion education and government All worldviews need to be more inclusive of relevant information and be internally consistent They need to represent the truth of reality as well as the truth in reality Each personal worldview is that person's standard of reference for truth whenever that person makes a decision We tend to fix our worldviews with claims of certainty rather than stable assumptions of truth Such fixed standards are not adequate to bring peace to this world We must learn to intentionally look beyond these fixed standards to estimate and seek the truth of what those worldviews ought to be in the future No information should be seen as value free and independent of morality We all use our personal worldviews when making moral decisions Our worldviews all need to change periodically in order to incorporate continuing non violent intentional change to our beliefs and values A meaningful worldview builds a representation of reality upon a set of assumptions of truth Reason demands non contradiction but it cannot promise a healthy worldview This book shows how to make them healthy Comments or questions about the book Email the author at wldview comcast net or check out his website <http://changeworldview.blogspot.com> Religion, Education and Human Rights Anders Sjöborg, Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2017-04-13 This book examines the interconnectedness between religion education and human rights from an international perspective using an interdisciplinary approach It deals with compulsory or secondary school education in different contexts as well as higher education and has as its common theme the multiplicity of secularisms in different national contexts Presenting rich cases the contributions include empirical and theoretical perspectives on how international trends of migration and cultural diversity as well as judicialization of social and political processes and rapid religious and social changes come into play as societies find their way in an increasingly diverse context The book contains chapters that present case studies on how confessional or non confessional Religious Education RE at schools in different societal contexts is related to the concept of universal human rights It presents cases studies that display an intriguing array of problems that point to the role of religion in the public sphere and show that historical contexts play important and different roles Other contributions deal with higher education where one questions how human rights as a concept and as discourse is taught and examines whether withdrawing from certain clinical training when in university education to become a medical doctor or a midwife on the grounds of conscientious objections can be claimed as a human right From a judicial point of view one chapter discerns the construction of the concept of religion in the Swedish Education Act in relation to the Swedish constitution as well European legislation Finally an empirical study comparing data from young people in six different countries in three continents investigates factors that explain attitudes towards human rights

José, Leoni, Juan Ignacio, Mander, Harsh, Nammour, Karim, Ramírez, Martha, 2019-08-31 This book points to an emerging set of ideas and practices being developed by activists scholars and courts from a range of countries that reveals the potential of human rights to resolve other radical injustices and to build more robust civil society movements against inequality and deregulation Numerous countries around the globe are witnessing a similar experience in their modern political contexts democratic tools and human rights instruments which have facilitated undeniable improvements in the lives of millions are proving largely insufficient for preventing extreme forms of exclusion In other words while human rights have played a fundamental role in highlighting inequalities based on factors such as gender and ethnic and racial identity they have coexisted alongside persistent socioeconomic injustices and the rise of authoritarian populist governments that are jeopardizing human rights institutions and principles worldwide Against this panorama some are arguing that the human rights movement is incapable of warding off social injustice while others are calling for a separation of the human rights and social movements This book offers a third way it points to an emerging set of ideas and practices being developed by activists scholars and courts from a range of countries that reveals the potential of human rights to resolve other radical injustices and to build more robust civil society movements against inequality and deregulation Descripci n tomada de <https://www.dejusticia.org> publication adressing inequality from a human rights perspective
