Travels With Charley In Search Of America:

Travels with Charley John Steinbeck, 2001-03 In 1960 when he was almost 60 years old John Steinbeck set out to rediscover the United States feeling he might have lost touch with its sights sounds and the essence of its people This book decribes his travels in a pick up truck across nearly 40 states with his dog Charlie a French poodle Travels with Charley in Search of America by John Steinbeck John Steinbeck, 1962 Travels with Charley In Search of America is a 1962 travelogue written by American author John Steinbeck It depicts a 1960 road trip around the United States made by Steinbeck in the company of his standard poodle Charley Steinbeck wrote that he was moved by a desire to see his country on a personal level because he made his living writing about it He wrote of having many questions going into his journey the main one being What are Americans like today However he found that he had concerns about much of the new America he witnessed Steinbeck tells of traveling throughout the United States in a specially made camper he named Rocinante after Don Quixote's horse His travels start in Long Island New York and roughly follow the outer border of the United States from Maine to the Pacific Northwest down into his native Salinas Valley in California across to Texas through the Deep South and then back to New York Such a trip encompassed nearly 10 000 miles According to Thom Steinbeck the author's oldest son the reason for the trip was that Steinbeck knew he was dying and wanted to see his country one last time The younger Steinbeck has said he was surprised that his stepmother allowed his father to make the trip his heart condition meant he could have died at any time Part One Steinbeck opened the book by describing his lifelong wanderlust and his preparations to rediscover the country he felt he had lost touch with after living in New York City and traveling in Europe for 20 years He was 58 years old in 1960 and nearing the end of his career but he felt that when he was writing about America and its people he was writing of something he did not know about and it seemed to him that in a so called writer this is criminal p 6 He bought a new GMC pickup truck which he named Rocinante and had it fitted with a custom camper shell for his journey At the last minute he decided to take his wife s 10 year old French Poodle Charley with whom he has many mental conversations as a device for exploring his thoughts He planned on leaving after Labor Day from his summer home in Sag Harbor on the eastern end of Long Island but his trip was delayed about two weeks due to Hurricane Donna which made a direct hit on Long Island Steinbeck's exploits in saving his boat during the middle of the hurricane which he details foreshadow his fearless or even reckless state of mind and his courage in undertaking a long arduous and ambitious cross country road trip by himself Part Two Steinbeck began his trip by traveling by ferry from Long Island to Connecticut passing the U S Navy submarine base at New London where many of the new nuclear submarines were stationed He talked to a sailor stationed on a sub who enjoyed being on them because they offer all kinds of future Steinbeck credited uncertainty about the future to rapid technological and political changes He mentioned the wastefulness of American cities and society and lamented the large amount of waste that resulted from everything being packaged Later he had a conversation with a

New England farmer The two concluded that a combination of fear and uncertainty about the future limited their discussion of the coming election between Richard Nixon and John F Kennedy Steinbeck enjoyed learning about people by eating breakfast in roadside restaurants and listening to morning radio programs though he noted that If Teen Age Angel sic is top of the list in Maine it is the top of the list in Montana 35 showing the ubiquity of pop culture brought on by Top 40 radio and mass media technologies Travels with Charley John Steinbeck, 2009-07-01 Steinbeck's famous road trip with his dog Steinbeck's Uneasy America Barbara A. Heavilin, Susan Shillinglaw, 2024 The first scholarly assessment of Steinbeck's bestselling travelogue Travels with Charley published in 1962 a narrative that blurs the lines between nonfiction and fiction Steinbeck's Uneasy America is the first collection of critical scholarship devoted to Travels with Charley in Search of America John Steinbeck s best selling late career travel memoir In 1960 Steinbeck was a renowned man of American letters Many considered him America's troubadour of ordinary people the conscience of the country But weakened by two small strokes and anxious that he had lost touch with America he embarked on a cross country road trip accompanied by his wife s standard poodle Charley Two years later he published Travels with Charley to popular acclaim and robust sales Throughout this narrative Steinbeck insists that all of our perceptions are warped by personality history and society And while this hybrid and experimental book has long been accepted as an accurate account of his journey journalists and scholars agree that the narrative is part factual part fiction America as seen through Steinbeck's particular warp. The work is long overdue for scholarly assessment Steinbeck's Uneasy America explores three main topics Part 1 explores genre and form to consider the degree to which the work is fiction or nonfiction Part 2 assesses Steinbeck's increasingly bleak assessment of America almost a jeremiad that warns citizens of ecological excess and political apathy Part 3 focuses on Travels with Charley as a road text travel adventure and literary influence This volume s authors offer rich scholarly insights and a wealth of stories facts and anecdotes about Steinbeck and the adventures and misadventures he and Charley met on the road Lively and groundbreaking the collection both enlightens and enlivens discussions of Steinbeck and of the twentieth century American book world CONTRIBUTORS Danica er e William P Childers Donald V Coers Robert DeMott Cecilia Donohue Charles Etheridge Mimi R Gladstein Barbara A Heavilin Kathleen Hicks Carter Davis Johnson Gavin Jones Sally S Kleberg Jay Parini Brian Railsback Susan Shillinglaw Nicholas P Taylor Critical Companion to John Steinbeck Jeffrey D. Schultz, Luchen Li, 2005 Celebrates the American writer who in his works confronted and explored the social fabric of the United States in the early 20th century More than 500 entries include synopses of his novels short stories and nonfiction descriptions of his characters details about family friends and associates Travels with Charley ,2000 Ouicklet on John Steinbeck's Travels with Charley in Search of America (CliffNotes-like Summary) David Shook, 2012-02-24 ABOUT THE BOOK I came to John Steinbeck's work through his novella The Pearl a diminutive but dark allegory about a Native American pearl diver whose discovery of an enormous pearl hurls him and his family into a world of greed and its disastrous consequences From The Pearl I found Cannery Row my favorite Steinbeck novel From its first sentence Steinbeck s descriptions vibrate with the same energy and poetry that his eclectic cast of outcasts embody as they throw unauthorized parties and philosophize with Doc based on Steinbeck's real life friend Ed Ricketts on 1920s Monterey Bay the American sardine capital at that time Cannery Row in Monterey in California is a poem a stink a grating noise a quality of light a tone a habit a nostalgia a dream I turned next to Steinbeck's nonfiction attracted to Travels with Charley In Search of America because of my own experiences on Routes 10 and 40 mostly heading west towards California or back to Oklahoma or Texas to wait until I could go again Like Steinbeck with his standard poodle Charley I drove with my steadfast companion Okie Doke a considerably smaller pooch MEET THE AUTHOR David Shook studied endangered languages in Oklahoma and poetry at Oxford He's published essays about dancing with the President of Burundi and being detained in Equatorial Guinea and his poetry translations and book reviews regularly appear in magazines like Ambit Poetry and World Literature Today His most recent translations include Mario Bellatin s novella Shiki Nagaoka A Nose for Fiction Roberto Bolano s 1976 manifesto Leave Everything Again and the selected love poems of Isthmus Zapotec poet Victor Teran His current writing projects include Kilometer Zero a covertly filmed documentary about lost Equatoguinean poets a miniature encyclopedia and a collection of travel essays Shook lives with his wife and chihuahua in Los Angeles where he edits Molossus He s a competitive foosballer miniature book collector banjolele picker and aspiring rapper His moustache is sponsored by Oregon Wild Hair Moustache Wax the most literary moustache wax in the world EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Steinbeck won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1962 two years after his driving tour across the continent and just months after the publication of Travels with Charley His winning propelled Travels with Charley to the number one spot on the New York Times Best Seller List In his acceptance speech he lauded man's proven capacity for greatness and challenged all writers to celebrate that greatness in their written work For Steinbeck that was literature s ultimate purpose and he compellingly articulated his opinion throughout his speech I hold that the writer who does not believe in the perfectibility of man has no dedication nor any membership in literature Born in Salinas California on 27 February 1902 John Steinbeck witnessed man's capacity for greatness in the fertile farmlands surrounding the agricultural hub town While working those fields himself notably in the company town of Spreckels which boasted the world's largest beet sugar processing plant he witnessed many of man's less noble attributes including corporate and individual greed the poor treatment of migrant workers and the degradation of the physical environment all themes he explored in his work Buy a copy to keep reading Travels with Charley in Search of America John Steinbeck, 2012-10-02 An intimate journey across and in search of America as told by one of its most beloved writers in a deluxe centennial edition In September 1960 John Steinbeck embarked on a journey across America He felt that he might have lost touch with the country with its speech the smell of its grass and trees its color and quality of light the pulse of its people To reassure himself he set out on a voyage of rediscovery of the American identity accompanied by a distinguished
