Shifting Sociolinguistic Terrains in Postcolonial Anglophone African Literary Writings Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2025-06-02 This ground breaking book focuses on the dynamic interplay between language and identity in postcolonial Anglophone African literature It examines how African writers navigate and reshape linguistic literary landscapes to articulate unique cultural experiences and resist neo colonial legacies The authors highlight the dynamics of sociolinguistic and cultural ecologies in the ever evolving 21st century African and postcolonial contexts and shed light on conceptions of African identities and humanity The book contributes to postcolonial discourses and suggests new ways of reading changing textual practices as well as providing important sites to rebuttal differentiation politics at play between the Global South and North The volume also illuminates intertextual conversations that will be insightful for other disciplines in the humanities It will function as an important reference for scholars and students of languages communication and media Global South literatures postcolonial African literary and cultural studies and African philosophies and concepts Whether one is an academic or a curious reader this book promises to offer compelling insights and fascinating narratives that together enrich present day understanding of the vibrant and evolving world of Anglophone African literature Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska,2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Time, the City, and the Literary Imagination Anne-Marie Evans,Kaley Kramer,2020-11-18 Time the City and the Literary Imagination explores the relationship between the constructions and representations of the relationship between time and the city in literature published between the late eighteenth century and the present This collection offers a new way of reading the literary city by tracing the ways in which the relationship between time and urban space can shape literary narratives and forms The essays consider the representation of a range of literary cities from across the world and consider how an understanding of time and time passing can impact on our understanding of the primary texts Literature necessarily deals with time both as a function of storytelling and as an experience of reading In this volume the contributions demonstrate how literature about cities brings to the forefront the relationship between individual and communal experience and time The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,Pedzisai Ruhanya,2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Girls, Power and International Development Rosie Walters,2025-05-28 The United Nations Foundation s Girl Up campaign has been critiqued for depoliticising global and gender inequalities portraying girls from the Global South as responsible for lifting entire communities out of poverty and encouraging girls in the Global North to see themselves as the saviours of their Southern counterparts Drawing on focus groups with Girl Up members from the UK US and Malawi this book demonstrates how girls reflect critically on the Girl Up discourse reject its individualistic vision of girls empowerment and interact with their Northern Southern counterparts in a spirit of mutual learning and respect Its analysis demonstrates how the girls use participation in the campaign to develop their own more complex radical and collective visions of girls empowerment

African Indigenous Ecological Knowledge Systems Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu,2022-07-14 The perspectives in this book reveal how in African anthroposophy earth based spiritual traditions and innovative spiritual practices are already emerging in response to the painful realities of climate change mass extinction biodiversity loss and the disruption of local and global ecosystems which have for long not received the attention that it duly deserves This piece therefore will become one of the greatest ornaments and lights in the world of African eco spirituality as it responds to questions that are long overdue Faith, Identity and Homicide Shona Robinson-Edwards,2021-10-09 This book explores the role that religion plays in the lives of imprisoned homicide offenders Drawing on interviews in an English prison the author examines how they narrate their life stories and how religion intersects with other categories to rebuild their personal identities after committing a crime and being labelled as murderers or killers This book seeks to bridge the gap between macro and micro phenomena examining religion as both a social institution and a personal experience It also explores the mediating role of institutions with regards to the nature and extent of their influence upon individual choices and actions and provides insights into the nature of the therapeutic prison It seeks to create some clarity of understanding the complex nature of religiosity narrative identity desistance and rehabilitation whilst critically examining elements of social identity that may restrict or enhance this process It provides a series of recommendations for organisations working with convicted homicide offenders offenders and speaks to academics and practitioners in the fields of criminology sociology psychology and religious theological studies Handbook of Research on Inequities in Online Education During Global Crises Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, Blankson, Joseph, Ntuli, Esther, 2021-05-07 In response to the COVID 19 pandemic many educational institutions implemented social distancing interventions such as initiating closure developing plans for employees to work remotely and transitioning teaching and learning from face to face classrooms to online environments The abrupt switch to online teaching and learning for the most part has been a massive change for administration faculty and students at traditional brick and mortar universities and colleges as concerns regarding the pedagogical soundness of this mode of delivery remain among some stakeholders Not only that but the switch has also revealed the inequities in the system when it comes to the types of students universities serve It is important as institutions move forward with online instruction that consideration be made about all students and what policies and strategies need to be put into place to help support and meet the needs of all constituents now or when unprecedented situations arise The only way this can be done is by documenting the experiences through the eyes of faculty who were at the frontline of providing instruction and advising services to students The Handbook of Research on Inequities in Online Education During Global Crises brings to light the struggles faculty and students faced as they were required to switch to online education during the global COVID 19 health crisis This crisis has revealed inequities in the educational system as well as the specific effects of inequities when it comes to learning online and the chapters in this book provide information to help institutions be better prepared for online education or remote learning in the future While highlighting topics such as new educational trends remote instruction diversity in education and teaching and learning in a pandemic this book is ideal for in service and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in the inequalities within the educational systems and the new policies and strategies put in place with online education to combat these issues and support the needs of all diverse student populations Dignity-Affirming Education Decoteau J. Irby, Charity Anderson, Charles M. Payne, William Ayers, Therese Quinn, 2022 The word dignity isn't typically used in education yet it's at the core of strong pedagogy This book names the concept and shows readers what education looks like when it is centered on students' dignity By bringing together a collection of chapters written by authors with wide ranging expertise this volume presents a powerful approach to education that reminds people of their somebodiness the premise that each person inherently possesses the intellectual acumen and creative resources to pursue development on their own terms This timely book brings dignity into sharper focus moving the field toward a language that captures what is required for oppressed communities to recognize their potential It synthesizes research for educators school leaders and educational activists to help them make sense of what they are working for and against dignity and the numerous affronts to it Dignity Affirming Education is important reading for anyone who works with students of any age including nontraditional or adult learners in formal and informal educational contexts Contributors Ramona Alcal Varnica Arora Mica Baum Tuccillo Crystal V Breedlove Alondra Contreras Michelle Fine Samuel
