Coastal Works Nicholas Allen, Nick Groom, Jos Smith, 2017 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge

Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work The Baltic Sea Region: A Comprehensive Guide Bernd Henningsen,Tobias Etzold,Krister

Hanne,2017-09-15 The Baltic Sea Region at the crossroads between East and West North and South has long been marked by cultural ethnical and ideological borders Overcoming a history of conflict and separation since the end of the Cold War the countries surrounding the Baltic Sea established widely valued formats of regional cooperation based on shared challenges and opportunities In comparison with larger regions however the Baltic Sea Area is still a blank spot on the global map This volume s intention is to fill this spot with colour and facts It provides students young researchers and other interested parties with basic knowledge of the region The volume offers a comprehensive introduction into its history politics economy and culture taking into account the various countries commonalities and differences By introducing concepts of regionalism and region building as well as analysing the structures of regional cooperation the authors and editors demonstrate the Baltic Sea Area s model function as a European macro region Back cover Transoceanic Perspectives in Amitav Ghosh's Ibis Trilogy Juan-José Martín-González,2021-06-23 Transoceanic Perspectives in Amitav Ghosh s Ibis Trilogy studies Ghosh s Sea of Poppies 2008 River of Smoke 2011 and Flood of Fire 2015 in relation to maritime criticism Juan Jos Mart n Gonz lez draws upon the intersections between maritime criticism and postcolonial thought to provide via an analysis of the Ibis trilogy alternative insights into nationalism s cosmopolitanism and globalization He shows that the Victorian age in its transoceanic dimension can be read as an era of proto globalization that facilitates a materialist critique of the inequities of contemporary global neo liberalism The book argues that in order to maintain its critical sharpness postcolonialism must re direct its focus towards today s most obvious legacy of nineteenth century imperialism capitalist globalization Tracing the migrating characters who engage in transoceanic crossings through Victorian sea lanes in the Ibis trilogy Mart n Gonz lez explores how these dispossessed collectives made sense of their identities in the Victorian waterworlds and illustrates the political possibilities provided by the sea crossing and its fluid boundaries Lonely Planet Denmark Lonely Planet,Mark fishing ports of the Baltic coast of Germany and the Netherlands culminating in a visit to Iceland's Herring Era Museum. Donald S. Murray has stitched together tales of the fish that was of central importance to the lives of our ancestors, noting how both it and those involved in their capture were celebrated in the art, literature, craft, music, and folklore of life in northern Europe. Blending together politics, science, history, religious, and commercial life, Donald contemplates too the possibility of restoring the silver darlings of legend to these shores.

Broken Karin Fossum, 2012

A gripping novel set on the boundary between fact and fiction. A woman wakes one night to find that a strange man has walked into her bedroom. She lies there in terrified silence, unable to move. The woman is an author, and the man, one of her prospective characters. So desperate is he to have his story told that he has resorted to breaking into her house to make her tell it. She creates Alvar Eide, forty-two years old, single, who works in an art gallery. He lives a quiet, dutiful life, carefully designed to avoid surprises. One winter's day, all this begins to change when an emaciated young heroin addict walks into the gallery. A kind man, Alvar gives her a cup of coffee to warm her up. She returns some weeks later to his place of work, and then one day appears on his doorstep demanding to be let in.

Interspersed with the chapters of Alvar s story are his encounters with its author the frantic attempts of a fictional man trying to control his own destiny Broken is a gripping novel about the boundary between fact and fiction and the perils of good intentions

The Water's Edge Karin Fossum,2009-07-28 A couple out walking in the woods discover the dead body of a half naked boy To Kristine s horror her husband begins to take photographs of the corpse on his mobile phone but this proves only the beginning of his obsession with the case Inspector Sejer is called to the scene but he can find no immediate cause of death And who was the agitated man the couple saw moments before their discovery Then a second boy goes missing and the once peaceful community is left deeply shaken Is there a killer within their midst
