We Want You To Know:

We Want You to Know Deborah Ellis, 2009-02-01 Through her association with a community anti bullying campaign launched in Haldimand Norfolk and neighboring communities in Southern Ontario children s author Deborah Ellis asked students from the ages of nine to nineteen to talk about their experiences with bullying The results are thoughtful candid and often harrowing accounts of business as usual in and around today s schools The kids in this book raise questions about the way parents teachers and school administrators cope with bullies They talk about which methods have helped and which ones with the best of intentions have failed to protect them And some kids reveal how they have been able to overcome their fear and anger to become strong advocates for the rights of others This is a book for reading and sharing Each interview is followed by questions that will encourage open discussion about the nature of bullying and the ways in which individuals and schools could deal more effectively with bullies and their victims And additional comments from international students reveal how much kids the world over have in common in the way they experience and deal with bullies These kids have something to say It s time we listened

We Want You Here Thom S.
