Reclaiming San Francisco James Brook, Chris Carlsson, Nancy J. Peters, City Lights Books, 1998 Reclaiming San Francisco is an anthology of fresh appraisals of the contrarian spirit of the city a spirit resistant to authority or control The official story of San Francisco is one of progress development and growth But there are other unofficial San Francisco stories often shrouded in myth and in danger of being forgotten and they are told here stories of immigrants and minorities sailors and waterfront workers and poets artists and neighborhood activists along with the stories of speculators land grabbers and the land itself that need to be told differently Contributors include historians geographers poets novelists artists art historians photographers journalists citizen activists an architect and an anthropologist Passionate about the city they want San Francisco to be more itself and less like the city of office towers chain stores theme parks and privatized public services and property that appears to be its immediate fate San Francisco is not alone in being transformed according to the dictates of the global economy But San Franciscans are unusual in their readiness to confront the corporate agenda for their city
