

Mother of the Groom Speech Examples

"Good evening, friends and family members! As the mother of the groom, I want to take this moment to express my heartfelt thanks to each of you for being a part of this special day in [son's name]'s and [bride's name]'s lives. Your presence means the world to us.

When [son's name] was a little boy, my husband and I were big worriers, constantly concerned about his wellbeing. But as he grew, we realized how resilient and strong he was. We have witnessed his daring adventures, from overnight camp escapades to college mishaps, all of which shaped the amazing person he has become.

Now, as I stand here, I see the love and happiness that [bride's name] brings into [son's name]'s life. From the moment they met, I knew there was something special between them. I am grateful for the positive impact [bride's name] has had on our family and for the joy they bring to each other's lives.

Today, we celebrate their union, and witnessing their vows exchange earlier was truly breathtaking. [bride's name], you are everything I could have wished for my son, and I am honored to call you my daughter-in-law. Let us raise our glasses in a toast to the newlyweds. May your journey together be filled with endless love, health, and happiness!"

Women and Gender in Contemporary Chinese Societies Shanshan Du, Ya-chen Chen, 2013-03-04

Recent attention to historical geographic and class differences in the studies of women and gender in China has expanded our understanding of the diversity and complexity of gendered China Nevertheless the ethnic dimension of this subject matter remains largely overlooked particularly concerning women's conditions and gender status Consequently the patriarchy and its oppression of women among the Han the ethnic majority in China are often inaccurately or erroneously associated with the whole gendered heritage of China epitomized by the infamous traditions of footbinding and female infanticide Such academic and popular predisposition belies the fact that gender systems in China span a wide spectrum ranging from extreme Han patriarchy to Lahu gender egalitarianism The authors contributing to this book have collectively initiated a systematic effort to bridge the gap between understanding the majority Han and ethnic minorities in regard to women and gender in contemporary Chinese societies By achieving a quantitative balance between articles on the Han majority and those on ethnic minorities this book transcends the ghettoization of ethnic minorities in the studies of Chinese women and gender The eleven chapters of this volume are divided into three sections which jointly challenge the traditions and norms of Han patriarchy from various perspectives The first section focuses on gender traditions among ethnic minorities which compete with the norms of Han patriarchy The second section emphasizes the impact of radical social transformation on gender systems and practices among both Han and ethnic minorities The third section underscores socio cultural diversity and complexity in resistance to Han patriarchal norms from a broad perspective This book complements previous scholarship on Chinese women and gender by expanding our investigative lens beyond Han patriarchy and providing images of the multiethnic landscape of China By identifying the Han as an ethnically marked category and by bringing to the forefront the diverse gender systems of ethnic minorities this book encourages an increasing awareness of and sensitivity to the cross cultural diversity of gendered China both in academia and beyond

Gift-Giving in Japan Katherine Rupp,2003 Gift giving is extremely important in Japanese society not only at personal and household levels but at the national and macroeconomic levels as well This book is the first in English to document the extraordinary scale complexity and variation of giving in contemporary Japan Gift Giving in Japan is based on eighteen months fieldwork in the Tokyo metropolitan area as well as short term research in other parts of Japan The core of the study is the experience of family representatives of different ages classes genders occupations neighborhoods and religions The author also interviewed experts including the author of gift giving etiquette books Buddhist and Shinto priests department store and funeral home employees and workers at Tokyo s Tsukiji fish market She participated in neighborhood festivals election rallies house building rites and other ceremonies of which gift giving was an integral part Recent anthropological interest in drawing a strong contrast between commodities and gifts both reflects and reinforces the conception of the gift as part of the giver and the related distinction between the realm of the gift and the realm of the marketplace The author argues that Japanese practices of giving and receiving challenge assumptions related to this idea of the gift

The Joys and Terrors of Public Speaking David Scott, 2014-03-27 The mere thought of standing up and speaking in front of an audience of any kind fills many people with dread whether it be at work at a wedding or heaven forbid at a conference This book is not about the experiences of professional speakers but a collection of stories many humorous some serious written by ordinary people ranging from regional newspaper editors to church ministers from teachers to Parliamentary candidates David Scott has called upon his own contact with the great British public to reveal that speakers should always expect the unexpected He offers guidance to those taking their first tentative steps into the world of public speaking and ends with a chapter of jokes which can be told on any occasion It is a useful guide to what anyone might expect when leaving the comfort of their warm homes or offices for draughty village halls and sometimes unforgiving audiences
