Her work as a building designer was mundane and largely thankless, and she was tired of the loneliness she felt every time she went to bed at night. She had a boyfriend before her life went downhill, one that she thought she might spend the rest of her life with, but he burned her and left her to pick up the pieces. Scorned by love, she had all but given up on ever finding someone that she could love and trust again. Frustrated with the way that her friend was stuck in such a rut, Danielle's best friend Monica convinces her to go to a new club that opened up in town, Club 101, to get out and have some fun for a change. Though she didn't necessarily want to go anywhere at first and would rather curl up with a bottle of wine and sleep off her migraine, she agreed. Once they doll themselves up and take their cab to the club, they find the place to be a rather swinging place where all of the most hip and fashionable people go to. And it's there that she met one mister Travon Batista, a local billionaire that runs his own medical company that sells prescription medication. She managed to catch his eye, and he offered to buy her a drink. She accepts, deciding that it was high time that she lived a little and let loose. So they relax around one another and talk over drinks. The two hit it off, and it isn't long before her heart whispers to her that it might not be so bad if she were to feel something for someone again. They spend one wild night together and promise to see each other again when he comes back.
