Acquisitions by Emerging Multinational Corporations Johannes Distler,2017-07-27 This thesis analyzes the motivation and performance of 403 acquisitions made by emerging multinational corporations EMNCs in Western Europe and North America between 1994 and 2013 The findings indicate that most EMNCs were motivated to acquire in order to obtain access to the upstream and downstream know how of their target firms In addition the thesis event study results demonstrate that EMNCs on average generated value for their shareholders with their acquisitions over short periods around acquisition announcement This result is particularly significant since similar studies on buying firms from developed markets have frequently come to the conclusion that acquirers destroy shareholder value Cyberlaw for Global E-business: Finance, Payments and Dispute Resolution Kubota, Takashi,2007-12-31 Examines cyberlaw topics such as cybercrime and risk management electronic trading systems of securities digital currency regulation jurisdiction and consumer protection in cross border markets and international bank transfers

Innovations in Services Marketing and Management: Strategies for Emerging Economies Goyal, Anita,2013-10-31 Modern corporations face a variety of challenges and opportunities in the field of sustainable development Properly managing assets and maintaining effective relationships with customers are crucial considerations in successful businesses Innovations in Services Marketing and Management Strategies for Emerging Economies presents insights into marketing strategies and tactical perspectives in both large and small enterprises The chapters in this book explore case studies contemporary research and theoretical frameworks in effective business management providing students academicians researchers and managers with the resources and insight necessary to identify key trends in emerging economies and build the next generation of innovative services International Business Alan M. Rugman,Simon Collinson,2009 A comprehensive introduction to International Business from authors at the forefront of research in international and strategic management Taking a regional approach this text challenges some of the underlying assumptions behind globalization and focuses on both the dominant economies the EU the US and Japan as well as emerging markets in world trade such as Brazil India and China The book also integrates analysis of the competitive environment and the internal resources of the firm to provide a strategic view of international business The book is written for students on undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes in business or business related disciplines Offshore Financial Centers, Accounting Services and the Global Economy Don E. Garner,David L. McKee,Yosra AbuAmara McKee,2000-07-30 The new global climate of free enterprise has brought with it a proliferation of offshore financial centers that presumably have important roles to play in the emergent global economy The air of secrecy that appears to pervade the activities of offshore financial centers may well slant or obscure any real understanding of the functions of such centers The authors investigate the role of major international accounting firms and their services in the processes of business facilitation in the locations that host these centers By focusing the investigation upon the role of the accounting firms in offshore financial centers the authors gain a better grasp of the real or potential impacts of the firms in the global economy and in the jurisdictions that host them Not only do the authors provide a detailed assessment of what the major accounting firms are actually doing in the centers but they point out what attributes are needed by jurisdictions hoping to succeed as offshore financial centers The centers included are Antigua Barbuda the Bahamas Barbados Bermuda the Cayman Islands the Channel Islands the Isle of Man Gibraltar Malta Cyprus Bahrain the United Arab Emirates Mauritius the Seychelles Singapore and Vanuatu The authors describe the legal and institutional environments facing business operations in general and the accounting firms in particular in offshore financial centers By studying these operations it should show what they are doing in terms of facilitating the international activities that flow through such centers It should also add to the understanding of the potential that offshore activities have as vehicles for development in small emerging economies This study should be of interest to a wide range of business disciplines as well as governmental agencies in advanced and emerging nations international agencies such as regional development banks and accountants and the international financial community
