Song Of Solomon By Toni Morrison:

Song of Solomon Toni Morrison, 1995-11-14 Follows the life of Macon Dead Jr the son of the richest black family in a midwestern town as he leaves home on a quest for personal freedom Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Jan Furman, 2003 Milkman Dead was born shortly after a neighborhood eccentric hurled himself off a rooftop in a vain attempt at flight For the rest of his life he too will be trying to fly As Morrison follows Milkman from his rustbelt city to the place of his family's origins she introduces an entire cast of strivers and seeresses liars and assassins the inhabitants of a fully realized Black world Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of interpretations of Toni Morrison's novel Song of Solomon A Study Guide for Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Gale, Cengage Learning, 2015-09-15 A Study Guide for Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs Toni Morrison and the Bible Shirley A. Stave, 2006 This collection of essays critically interrogates Toni Morrison's use of the Bible in her novels examining the ways in which the author plays on the original text to raise issues of spirituality as it affects race gender and class Ideal for courses on Morrison or on explorations of the intersection of religion and literature this collection treats its topic with sophistication considering religion in its broadest possible sense and examining syncretic theologies as well as mainstream religions in its attempt to locate Morrison's work in a spiritual theological nexus Song of Solomon by Toni Morrison (MAXnotes), Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Nancy A. Ciabattari, 1996 A Study Guide for Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon Cengage Learning Gale, 2015 Negotiating Difference Michael Awkward, 1995-03 Encamped within the limits of experience and authenticity critics today often stake out their positions according to race and ethnicity sexuality and gender and vigilantly guard the boundaries against any incursions into their privileged territory In this book Michael Awkward raids the borders of contemporary criticism to show how debilitating such protectionist stances can be and how much might be gained by crossing our cultural boundaries From Spike Lee's She's Gotta Have It to Michael Jackson's physical transmutations from Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon to August Wilson's Fences from male scholars' investments in feminism to white scholars in black texts Awkward explores cultural moments that challenge the exclusive critical authority of race and gender In each instance he confronts the question What do artists scholars and others concerned with representations of Afro American life make of the view that gender race and sexuality circumscribe their own and others' lives and narratives Throughout he demonstrates the perils and merits of the sort of boundary crossing this book ultimately makes a black male feminism In pursuing a black male feminist criticism Awkward's study acknowledges the complexities of interpretation in an age when a variety of powerful discourses have proliferated on the subject of racial gendered and sexual difference at the same time it identifies this proliferation as an opportunity to negotiate seemingly fixed cultural and critical positions

The Specter and the Speculative Mae G. Henderson, Jeanne Scheper, Gene Melton, 2024-05-31 The Specter and the Speculative Afterlives and Archives in the African Diaspora engages in a critical conversation about how historical subjects and historical texts within the African Diaspora are re-fashioned, re-animated and re-articulated as well as parodied, nostalgized and defamiliarized to establish an afterlife for African Atlantic identities and narratives. These essays focus on transnational, transdisciplinary and transhistorical sites of memory and haunting, textual, visual and embodied performances in order to examine how these living archives circulate and imagine anew the meanings of prior narratives liberated from their original context. Individual essays examine how historical and literary performances in addition to film, drama, music, dance and material culture thus revitalized, transcend and speak across temporal and spatial boundaries not only to reinstate traditional meanings but also to motivate fresh commentary and critique. Emergent and established scholars representing diverse disciplines and fields of interest specifically engage under explored themes related to afterlives, archives and haunting.

Challenging Realities: Magic Realism in Contemporary American Women's Fiction M. Ruth Noriega Sánchez, 2011-11-28 Les arrels del realisme màgic en els escrits de Borges i altres autors d'Amèrica Llatina han estat ampliament reconeguts i ben documentades, produint una sèrie d'estudis crítics molts dels quals figuren en la bibliografia d'aquest treball. Dins d'aquest marc, aquest llibre presenta als lectors una varietat d'escriptors de grups ètnics coneguts i menys coneguts i les col·loca en un context literari en el que es tracten tant a nivell individual com a escriptors així com a nivell col·lectiu com a part d'un moviment artístic més ampli. Aquest llibre és el resultat del treball realitzat a les universitats de Sheffield i la de València i representa una valuosa investigació i una important contribució als estudis literaris.

Romantic Postmodernism in American Fiction Eberhard Alsen, 1996 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen's book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O'Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disjunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence
