Das", 2025-07-12 Shards Where Love Lies in Pieces Love rarely arrives whole It fractures it lingers it fades and sometimes it never begins Shards is a tapestry of human emotion delicately pieced together through memories silences and the ache of what could have been In this heartfelt anthology multiple voices come together to explore the fragile beauty of love in its many broken forms the lingering sting of heartbreak the quiet ache of one sided affection the bittersweet pull of nostalgia and the ghosts of lovers lost to time Each piece be it poem or prose is a fragment sharp and glinting with truth capturing moments that once burned bright and now remain only in recollection From whispered longings to unsent letters Shards invites you to hold what remains when love falls apart and to find perhaps that there is still grace in the fragments

Shapes and Shadows Madison Julius Cawein, 2019-12-04 In Shapes and Shadows Madison Julius Cawein weaves a rich tapestry of nature and emotion through his masterful use of imagery and symbolism The collection first published in the early 20th century embodies the ethos of American Romanticism celebrating the intricate interplay between the natural world and the human experience Cawein's poetic form reflects an exquisite balance of lyrical beauty and meditative depth inviting readers to explore themes of transience and beauty often juxtaposing light and darkness in their various manifestations

Shapes and Shadows Madison J Cawein, 2024-03-04 Shapes and Shadows by Madison Julius Cawein is a collection of poetry that likely showcases the American poet's fascination with nature mysticism and the beauty of the Kentucky landscape. Published during the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Cawein's verses are likely imbued with a romantic sensibility and a keen observation of the world around him. Within this collection, readers can anticipate encountering Cawein's signature themes such as his deep connection to nature and his exploration of the mysterious and ethereal aspects of existence. The title Shapes and Shadows suggests a play between light and darkness, tangible and elusive forms, inviting readers into a realm where the boundaries between the natural and the supernatural blur. Cawein's poetry is likely characterized by its vivid imagery, lyrical language, and a sense of nostalgia for a bygone era. The verses may reflect the influence of Romanticism, with a focus on the sublime in nature and the emotional impact of the changing seasons. Cawein's exploration of shadows may delve into the symbolic and metaphorical, offering readers an introspective journey into the complexities of the human experience.

The Poems of Madison Cawein. Volume 2 (of 5) Madison Cawein, 2021-12-02 75 The Ember Heart

Frederick Hovasapian, 2012-11-17 This Fantastic Book contains both Horror and Love poetry with stunning word choice and some poems from Ode to the Black Heart The Royal Mariner, Etc. (Poetic Sketch of the Naval Scenes in which King William IV. Bore ... Part.). Charles Doyné Sillery, 1834 Darwin's Circus Edward Fisher, 2012-04 In his second collection of works, Edward Fisher is at his rhapsodic best, again full of rhythmic surprise and lyrical freshness as he wrestles with the intermingling mysteries of love and death. Ordinary experience becomes a gateway to revelation through the miracle and adventure of the senses in a celebration of the natural world. The merry-go-round of the planet dancing with animals revolves in a circle of self-discovery, eternal renewal, and metamorphosis. This festive air of child-like wonder and simple joy is set against the backdrop of the passing seasons and a sense of personal loss, plumbing the darker side of suffering that deepens our humanity and compassion. At once both testament and meditation hymn and psalm, Fisher explores the universality of sacred stories, reconciling the scientific world view with religious symbol and myth, and finding meaning in the guiding hand of love through the geography of longing and lament.

The Complete Poetical Works Samuel Taylor

Coleridge, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original The Complete Poetical Works by Samuel Taylor Coleridge I Will Never Trust a Man Dr. Kumdong Bindul Nostra, 2014-06-17 From the very first moment Saratu met Bindul, he made her believe that she was more than any other woman he had ever seen in the world. He bathed her with love, bathed her, bathed her, and finally drowned her completely into his love. Saratu loves him with the truest love of her heart. As matter of fact, they were head over heels in love. They admired each other, they adored each other, they allured each other, they liked each other, they want each other, they need each other, they beseechingly desired each other, and they loved each other like politicians with corruptions. They declared their love for each other, and not so long they stood in front of an overfilled church congregation to publicly declare their love for each other in a one-in-town society marriage. They swam in their love and lived very, very comfortable and happily in love. Saratu wasn't in need of anything, even sex. Bindul gave her all the practical part of love, the love that was made in heaven for a woman that kind of love that made her feel as though she was the only EVE with the only ADAM in this modern world and she was wholly dependable on it Like King Solomon to his wives and concubines Bindul lavished Saratu with the sweetest lovely words and praises He gave her all that she needed in life But when Saratu later discovered that her husband was still madly in love with Jimikat his primeval girlfriend things wasn't the same again for her Their loveliest sex packed marriage suffered a temporary drought of sex Saratu first run to her dear friend Dakmikat for help Despite doing everything her husband clung onto Jimikat like a tick to a cow But at the end when Bindul brought the two of them together the problem was solved and Saratu and Jimikat became very very good friends and lived very happily under the spell of Bindul
