

Layout of the Poster

There are a number of ways to successfully present your research, and different sorts of research may require somewhat different presentation strategies. The goal here is to demonstrate key principles. You can see examples of posters that illustrate many of the suggestions given here on my Web site: <http://www.south.edu/biology/labs/yurchank/publications/books.htm> (click on Sample Posters).

Notice that our poster (Fig. 10.3) is divided into three major sections, each highlighting one key issue, and that each section is separated from the other sections by substantial space. Readers can easily follow the logic of the presentation by scanning from left to right, section by section—there is never
