Y. Zhang,1998-10-05 This book is a reinterpretation of China s international relations since 1949 Employing the notion and theory of international society it offers a systematic examination of China s unique relationship with the society of states from its alienation in the 1950s and the 1960s to its political socialisation and economic integration in the 1980s and the 1990s It explores how such a unique relationship has shaped and is likely to shape Chinese foreign policy This book provides an entirely new perspective for our understanding of forces influencing Chinese foreign policy behaviour Macmillan Social-studies Series: Living together in the Old World ,1958 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1990 China's Environmental Challenges Judith Shapiro,2024-01-17 China s huge environmental challenges affect not only the health and well being of China but the very future of the planet In this fully revised and updated third edition of her acclaimed book noted scholar of Chinese environmentalism Judith Shapiro explores China s struggle to achieve the ecological civilization championed by Xi Jinping since 2017 Drawing on six core analytical concepts globalization governance national identity civil society environmental justice and extractivism Shapiro ably demonstrates the multifaceted and complex nature of this struggle China s precipitous economic growth has carried a heavy cost in air and water pollution soil contamination and loss of habitat for the biodiversity upon which human life depends But its quest for sustainability has been further hampered by authoritarian governance patterns soaring middle class consumption the need to provide employment and safety nets for a population of more than one billion and a manufacturing sector thirsty to secure global resources and sell to new markets Transformation to a more sustainable development model is still possible But as Shapiro persuasively argues this will require humility creativity and a rejection of business as usual China and the planet are at a pivotal moment Humanities ,1980
