Addiction and the Making of Professional Careers

Griffith Edwards, 2017-09-08 The misuse of drugs continues to cause suffering and worldwide economic turmoil In response to these problems many have devoted their lives to preventing the misuse of mind altering substances Addiction and the Making of Professional Careers focuses on the need for enhanced understanding of professional careers in the addiction field

The spectrum of professionals involved is wide and includes treatment personnel of every kind. Some of the questions examined here include: Why do some people decide to dedicate their lives to responding to drug problems? How do and should we select, train, mentor, support, inspire and nurture the young career aspirant? What makes for the most effective use of talent? Is every personal case different or can general conclusions be reached? After a foreword by William Miller and an introduction by Griffith Edwards, the book includes interviews with Joseph Brady, Louis Harris, Conan Kornetsky and Robert DuPont, all of whom were pioneers in the behavioral pharmacological analysis of addiction. Commentary chapters are written by Kerstin Stenius, Ilana Crome, Peter Anderson and Jonathan Chick.

The first nine challenges refer to specific outcomes across the three pillars of developing, activating and Assessment and Development Centres Iain Ballantyne, Nigel Povah, 2004. Since the first edition of this book, the level of interest and the varied forms of assessment and development centres have mushroomed. Iain Ballantyne and Nigel Povah's book looks at the entire process from the underlying concepts to the most effective methods of validation, not forgetting the organizational politics involved. The main objectives of the book are to establish a thorough understanding of the principles and practice of assessment and development centres, to provide sufficient knowledge to enable practitioners to run their own events in a professional manner, to help readers to recognise when they may need to call on outside expertise, and to equip readers to ask pertinent questions of any prospective advisers. This second edition includes guidance to reflect the significant developments within the technology, along with further advice on quality control, process improvements and further refinements to the increasingly popular development centre concept. Assessment and Development Centres represents a practical approach which is sure of a warm welcome from HR professionals.

Youth policy in Ukraine Ewa Krzaklewska, Howard Williamson, Council of Europe, 2014-01-01

Ukraine is the 19th country overall and the third of the Commonwealth of Independent States following Armenia and Moldova to have its youth policy reviewed by the Council of Europe's international review team. Ukraine presented a range of new challenges it was by far the largest country geographically and it embodied geo political characteristics from North to South and East to West that are reflected in its philosophy and approach to youth policy development This international review explores three issues of particular interest to the Ukrainian authorities health and healthy lifestyles employment and employability and patriotic education and citizenship in addition the international review pays special attention to questions of youth participation and engagement and to those groups of vulnerable young people who are at most risk of social exclusion The review argues for the establishment of a more open development model for youth policy in Ukraine supported by a clear strategic vision and the strengthening of its commitment to local capacity and autonomy in shaping relevant programmes and projects in particular it also advocates the promotion of more diverse methodologies in the implementation of youth policy based on non formal learning and skills development principles
