

Key Stage 2 Comprehension provides a unique collection of 72 stimulating texts that appeal to both boys and girls, together with questions that build comprehension skills and widen vocabulary. Readers are also given intensive practice in observing how different kinds of writing are structured and in identifying literary devices and their effects. Comprising four one-per-child pupil books, the series is designed for children in Years 3 to 6 and is also suitable for some older pupils.

The Key Stage 2 Comprehension pupil books support the National Curriculum and provide a permanent record of each child's work, helping you to monitor progress.

The series provides:

- a brief introduction with useful background information, which sets each piece of writing in context
- passages from classic and contemporary fiction to broaden pupils' reading experience
- a wide selection of poetry, from Dylan Thomas to John Agard
- stimulating non-fiction extracts, with different subjects and structures
- a range of question types, including direct, inferential and evaluative questions.

Key Stage 2 Comprehension Book 2 is for pupils in Year 4 (ages 8–9) whose reading skills are fluent and accurate. Eighteen carefully selected texts reflect the range of genres recommended by the National Curriculum and questions are clearly presented on the facing page. The second of four Key Stage 2 Comprehension pupil books, this book features work by writers such as Robert Louis Stevenson and Valerie Bloom as well as a Sherlock Holmes playscript and an instructional text.

The separate Teacher's Guide contains teaching notes, sample answers and further activities for each text, allowing you to use Key Stage 2 Comprehension to its full potential.

The full range of books in the series is as follows.
