Vatican II Catholic Doctrines On Jews And Muslims:

Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2014 Gavin D Costa breaks new ground in this authoritative study of the Second Vatican Council's doctrines on other religions with particular attention to Judaism and Islam. The focus is exclusively on the doctrinal foundations found in Lumen Gentium 16 that will serve Catholicism in the twenty-first century. D Costa provides a map outlining different hermeneutical approaches to the Council whilst synthesising their strengths and providing a critique of their weaknesses. Moreover, he classifies the different authority attributed to doctrines thereby clarifying debates regarding continuity, discontinuity and reform in doctrinal teaching. Vatican II Catholic Doctrines on Jews and Muslims expertly examines the Council's revolutionary teaching on Judaism which has been subject to conflicting readings including the claim that the Council reversed doctrinal teachings in this area. Through a rigorous examination of the debates, the drafts, the official commentary and with consideration of the previous Council and papal doctrinal teachings on the Jews, D Costa lays bare the doctrinal achievements of the Council and concludes with a similar detailed examination of Catholic doctrines on Islam. This innovative text makes essential interventions in the debate about Council hermeneutics and doctrinal teachings on the religions.

Vatican II, 2014 D Costa breaks fresh ground in this study of the Second Vatican Council's doctrines on other religions, especially Judaism and Islam. This study focuses exclusively on the doctrinal foundations found in Lumen Gentium 16 that will serve Catholicism in the twenty-first century.

Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People After Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2019 This book addresses three controversial and timely questions related to Catholic Jewish dialogue: Jewish ritual, Catholic Zionism and mission.

Symposium on Gavin D'Costa, Vatican II: Catholic Doctrines on Jews and Muslims Marianne Moyaert, 2017

Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People After Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2019 The book explores Roman Catholic doctrines after the Second Vatican Council regarding the Jewish people, 1965-2015. It establishes the emergence of the teaching that God's covenant with the Jewish people is irrevocable. What does this mean for Catholics regarding Jewish religious rituals, the land and mission? The book examines early magisterial documents that seem to contradict current teachings. The apparent contradiction is historically contextualized. It argues two points: First, that earlier teachings accept the positive value of Jewish rituals within certain conditions. This can be applied in principle to contemporary religious Jewish rituals. These earlier traditions also show a positive valuation of Jewish cultic practices within the early Christian church. The book examines new Catholic approaches to the Old Testament. Despite different New Testament teachings about the land, it is argued that the promise of the Land to the Jewish people with various conditions can be regarded as valid for Catholics. The book also examines the Holy See's shifting attitude to the modern State of Israel and its pragmatic silence on the theology of land. The book proposes a form of minimalist Catholic Zionism affirming the land without excluding a just Palestinian resolution. The book explores unresolved Catholic teachings on mission and witness. The centre of this debate concerns the new assumption that Christians should not erase God-given Jewish identity. The book asks could Hebrew Catholics witness to this reality while also testifying to the compatibility and unity of the two covenants

Buddhist-Christian Dual Belonging Gavin D'Costa, Ross Thompson, 2017-05-15 A growing number of people describe themselves as both Buddhist and Christian but does such a self description really make sense Many people involved in inter faith dialogue argue that this dialogue leads to a mutually transformative process but what if the transformation reaches the point where the Buddhist or Christian becomes a Buddhist Christian Does this represent a fulfilment of or the undermining of dialogue Exploring the growing phenomenon of Buddhist Christian dual belonging a wide variety of authors including advocates sympathisers and opponents from both faiths focus on three key questions Can Christian and Buddhist accounts and practices of salvation or liberation be reconciled Are Christian theism and Buddhist non theism compatible And does dual belonging inevitably distort the essence of these faiths or merely change its cultural expression Clarifying different ways of justifying dual belonging contributors offer criticisms of dual belonging from different religious perspectives Theravada Buddhist Evangelical Reformed and Roman Catholic and from different methodological approaches Four chapters then carry the discussion forward suggesting ways in which dual belonging might make sense from Catholic Theravada Buddhist Pure land Buddhist and Anglican perspectives The conclusion clarifies the main challenges emerging for dual believers and the implications for interreligious dialogue

Nostra Aetate, Non-Christian Religions, and Interfaith Relations Kail C. Ellis,2020-10-01 This book explores how Nostra Aetate the Declaration on the Relation of the Church with Non Christian Religions of the Second Vatican Council can influence inter religious dialogue and understanding in the modern world Although influential in religious academic and scholarly circles it is relatively unknown outside these areas The contributors remedy that deficit by highlighting the declaration s difficult historical and social context and the Church s evolving relationship with non Christians Contentious topics are examined such as the link between the Jewish people and the land and state of Israel that questions the Catholic understanding of the relativity of national borders and identity and the challenges posed to the Church's relationship with Islam by its prioritization of human rights and religious freedom for Christians and minorities in certain Muslim regimes. Given its scope it is an ideal resource for graduate students and researchers in the fields of political science international relations religion and minority studies.

 Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue addresses the main theological topics of discussion that appear in Christian Muslim engagement. Many of these topics originate in the medieval period and the earliest encounters between Christians and Muslims. Even so the topics persist in contemporary contexts of dialogue and engagement. Christians and Muslims still discuss whether or not God should be understood as strictly one or as a Trinity in Unity and debates over the nature of revelation or prophethood remain. Theological reflection therefore must continue to be brought to bear on these topics in light of their history and in view of their applicability to growing contexts of inter religious engagement. Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue is a comprehensive theological sourcebook for students learning about Christian Muslim relations and practitioners engaged in Christian Muslim dialogue.

Catholic - Jewish Engagements on Israel Gavin D'Costa, Veto Ccn Etienne, White Op Thomas Joseph, 2025-07-25
 This is the first volume of its kind bringing together a group of international Jewish and Catholic scholars in creative conversation addressing the question of the status of the land called Israel. Is Israel best viewed as political territory the Holy Land or part of the biblical promise? If committing to one of these options what are the theological and political consequences? The book is divided into sections that take the reader through several related questions that bear upon this topic. There is a preface with an overview of how far Catholic Jewish conversations have gone since Nostra Aetate and how these conversations have now begun to address the land. Then there is an attempt to advance positive theological cases by Catholics and Jews affirming the people in the land as theologically significant not without difficulties regarding the state itself. The next section deals with the bible Tanakh as the basis of such claims and addresses the different reading strategies by each community. One of the central questions is then addressed: what of the Palestinian people do the biblical promise to the Jewish people spell disaster for the Palestinians? Can revelation mean dispossession? The following essays address a stumbling block for both groups: do Jewish and Christian theologies underwrite a nation state? Isn't this option perilously close to God underwriting nationalism? The book ends with subtle critiques of the entire venture undertaken in this volume. Essential reading for Catholic Jewish relations and one that addresses one of the most pressing contemporary questions for both religions.
