

-S and -ES

Decodable Sentence Pyramids

The suffixes -s and -es sentence pyramids will help students build reading fluency through repeated reading of words. The student starts with the first word, then works their way through each line of the pyramid as a new word is added. Students continue reading each subsequent line until the entire sentence is read.

These cards are perfect for an independent or small group activity. Your students will have fun reading and decoding as they practice words with -s and -es endings!
