Night Is For Hunting The John Marsden:

The Night is for Hunting John Marsden, 2013-04-25 A year of war A year of terror And a year of loss Twelve months have passed since the invasion Ellie has lost friends she has taken many lives and she is still as disgusted by violence as she is determined to stand up to the invaders Now the friends find themselves back in their sanctuary of Hell caring for a band of feral children whose lives have been destroyed by the war Meanwhile the conflict intensifies and the enemy draws closer

John Marsden's Will Emmeline Garnett, 1998-01-01 John Marsden was a mentally retarded Lancashire gentleman looked after by his aunt When he died his estate passed to George Wright a servant who was given stewardship of the estate This book looks at the legal wrangle which followed While I Live John Marsden, 2008 Even though the war is over and she is back on her family's farm Ellie Linton is haunted by the memories and now must discover how to find the enemy within herself in order to move on with her life The Europa Directory of Literary Awards and Prizes Susan

Leckey, 2015-12-22 A complete guide to the major awards and prizes of the literary world An invaluable source of information on awards and prizes world wide Covers over 1 000 awards and prizes Comprehensive background information on each award Extensive contact details Contents Includes internationally awarded prizes along with prestigious national awards Subject areas covered include adult and children's fiction non fiction poetry lifetime's achievement translation and drama Information is provided on the history of each award its purpose what is awarded how often the prize is awarded eligibility and restrictions the awarding organization and the most recent recipients Full contact details of the awarding organization are provided including main contact name postal address e mail and Internet address telephone and fax numbers Fully indexed by keyword awarding organization and award by subject The Night is for Hunting John Marsden, Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural

Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children s literature

Circle of Flight: The Ellie Chronicles 3 John Marsden, 2010-09-01 The follow up to the bestselling Tomorrow series BOOK 3 IN THE ELLIE CHRONICLES TRILOGY Addictive reading Sydney Morning Herald Australia s king of young adult fiction The Australian Skilfully paced brimming with well rounded characters whom you can believe in The Age You jam on the brakes and stop the ute right at your front door You jump out Not for the first time you run into a house that could be full of guns with death waiting for you You don t even think of that until you re crossing the threshold You already know what you re going to find Underneath the fear and horror and panic there s a cold realisation that Gavin s body will be somewhere in the house You can picture what those bullets will have done to his little body It is a time of profound change for Ellie Linton Enemies are everywhere Some come crawling over the hills others drive in and knock on the front door Sometimes her friends are there and sometimes they are not Ellie fights every inch of the way But when courage and imagination are not enough when she is trapped and helpless Ellie must face the end of life as she knows it standing alone sustained only by her own strength Fans of Veronica Roth Suzanne Collins and John Flanagan will love John Marsden

John Marsden John Noell Moore, 2010-10-28 A master storyteller John Marsden is Australia s best known writer for young adults Marsden first found success with the publication of So Much To Tell You Since then he has gone on to publish many popular and well recognized titles including those in the Tomorrow Series and The Ellie Chronicles In his books Marsden explores adolescents caught in a world of opposites of innocence and guilt idealism and realism and joy and despair Marsden s world view and his faith in adolescents serve as the backdrop for John Noell Moore s critical readings of Marsden s major novels In John Marsden Darkness Shadow and Light Moore investigates the full spectrum of Marsden s work beginning with the author s life as a teacher and writer Throughout the book Moore weaves together Marsden s recurring themes chief among them writing and storytelling as ways of constructing identity in the transition from childhood to adulthood and the ability of young adults to endure hardships and overcome seemingly insurmountable odds The book is a valuable addition to the current scholarship on young adult literature and will be welcomed by middle and high school English teachers and students alike

Australian Book Review , 2002 Australian Children's Books, 1980-2000 Marcie Muir, Kerry White, 2004 All Australian children s books published from 1989 to 2000 are listed in this essential reference for those who appreciate the richness of Australian writing for children Following the same format as volumes 1 and 2 in this series chronicling books published as early as 1774 entries include publishing details the number of illustrations and the awards received for each book This third volume follows the continuing careers of authors such as Mem Fox Bob Graham

Robin Klein and Paul Jennings and traces changes in the popularity of Australian themes and settings to identify publishing trends Varied cultural aspects of modern day life are shown from globalization commercialism and the rise of the middle class in Asia to desktop publishing outcome based school curricula and the modern obsession with celebrities all of which are reflected in the type and quantity of books produced by Australian writers and publishers The wealth of included material will extend researchers understanding of the range of Australian children s books

Children's Literature and the Fin de Siècle Roderick McGillis,2003-11-30 The close of a century invites both retrospection and prognostication As a period of transition it also brings a sense of uncertainty finality and apocalypticism These feelings stem from various events such as political turmoil scientific advancements and social change As might be expected literature reflects such changes and the feelings they engender But perhaps more surprisingly children s literature is especially sensitive to such matters and fiction for children often struggles with dark and unpleasant issues This book examines fin de si cle tensions in 19th and 20th century children s literature from around the world Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and the volume ranges over a disparate variety of topics These include poetry series books pacifist fiction gender issues religion and literature eco criticism minority experiences humor and the Holocaust fantasy and science fiction and computer culture In exploring these issues in relation to children s literature the contributors reveal the shifting nature of our values and the world in which we live Global in nature the chapters look at children s literature from such places as Germany Holland the United Kingdom Australia and the United States

Reading Race Clare Bradford,2013-05-09 How do children s books relate to the cultures that produce them and how do they influence those cultures In Reading Race Clare Bradford looks at representations of Australia s indigenous peoples in texts for children She shows how these varying representations have helped to colour the attitudes beliefs and assumptions of different generations of Australians To what extent have children s books enabled readers to understand Aboriginal culture relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people and relationships between Aboriginality and national identity Bradford draws on examples from popular and literary children's books of all genres fiction non-fiction picture books and school texts She reveals that many children's books display the tensions and uncertainties inherent in relations between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people Bradford also uncovers the different ideologies of race that have informed Australian children's texts from the nineteenth century to currently popular writers demonstrating cultural shifts in the representation of Aboriginality over time The result is a groundbreaking and intelligent picture of how Australian children's books by both white and Aboriginal writers have negotiated the matter of race Reading Race will enhance the ways in which we come to read and understand the complex and delicate issues around Aboriginal-white relations It will be an invaluable resource in the fields of post-colonial studies Indigenous and Aboriginal studies literary and cultural studies and children's literature
