NAME POEM

A name poem is one in which each letter of a person's name (first or first and last) is used as the initial letter for one line of the poem. This type of poem need not rhyme.

Example: Judy is a teenage girl,
Usually in a social swirl.
Drives her mother up a wall
Yacking on her tenth phone call.

Sean has bright red hair
Even freckles on his face
And he loves to play soccer
Never likes to do chores

On your own: Write poems about yourself and your friends. Illustrate your poems.

Eats almost anything,
Likes to climb a tree,
In overalls and T-shirt
Zany as can be.
Adopting any animal,
Big toe has a blister,
Elizabeth, Elizabeth...
That's my sister!
Hurrah!

Poetry Lessons For Fifth Grade:

Teaching Literacy in Fifth Grade Susan I. Wasser, 2021-08-16 I just cannot write or I am not a good writer are familiar complaints from students in academia Many of them claim they cannot express themselves clearly in written text and their lack of this skill impedes them in their academic career In this book Nancy A Wasser argues that teachers can help solve this when they start viewing writing not as secondary to reading but as the equally important side of the same coin Those who cannot read will not be able to write Wasser explains how teaching and regular practicing of writing skills from an early age onwards helps children grow into students who are self aware of their voices By employing narrative as a process of learning to write and a way to read teachers can teach children the art of writing while also making children more aware of their own constructions of narrative Combining the focus on individual and group expression in writing lessons students can trace and reflect on their own life transformations through their writing process Good writers are not born that way but made through effort and practice Changes in curriculum may not only lead to better expressed citizens but also to more balance between teacher and children voices Teaching New Literacies in Grades 4-6 Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, 2009-11-24 Upper elementary students encounter a sometimes dizzying array of traditional and nontraditional texts both in and outside of the classroom This practical handbook helps teachers in grades 4 6 harness the instructional potential of fiction poetry and plays informational texts graphic novels digital storytelling Web based and multimodal texts hip hop advertisements math problems and many other types of texts Twenty four complete lessons promote critical literacy skills such as comprehending analyzing and synthesizing information and using writing to communicate new ideas and pose questions Snapshots of diverse classrooms are accompanied by clear explanations of the research base for instruction in each genre Ready to use reproducibles are included Give Them Poetry! Glenna Davis Sloan, 2003-01-01 This lively book offers a host of ways for teachers to bring poetry and children together in their classrooms The book gives examples of children s poetry writing and methods of presenting poetry to students of any age Certain Procedures of Studying Poetry in the Fifth Grade Honora Margaret Frawley, 1932 Physical Education Unit Plans for Grades 5-6 Bette J.
