

Alliteration Poem

Alliteration is the repetition of the first consonant sound in words. You can use these sentences to create a poem. Good examples are tongue twister such as:

Peter Piper picked a pack of pickled peppers

She sells sea shells by the sea shore

Leo the Lion

Leo the lion loved the outdoors,
He had four very mighty paws.

Leo liked the little lightening bugs at night,
During the day they were out of sight.

New Oxford English Anne Powling, John O'Connor, Geoff Barton, 1996 New Oxford English Students Book 2 has been designed to cover the requirements of the National Curriculum at Key Stage 3. The Students Book provides a flexible resource for teaching the National curriculum structured around the four modules. An integrated approach to language study at all stages. A rich and varied range of authors, poets and playwrights from different centuries and cultures. Language Study Units at the end of every module providing extensive language work from source texts which can be used alongside the featured texts or separately. IT opportunities built into the books throughout. Varied activities in each module which help to develop individual and group study skills.

Environment Poetry Andrew Frolish, 2012-10-19 This is a great new resource that provides a selection of poems, lesson plans and worksheets designed to be used by Key Stage 2 teachers in literacy lessons. The poems and lesson plans are based on a variety of environmental issues such as recycling, dramatic weather changes and environmental disasters like oil spills. The book contains 24 lessons with cross-curricular links to support learning in other subject areas. Their interest coincides with the need for schools to raise awareness of environmental concerns and to become more sustainable organisations.
