What Women Want Geoff Dench, 2017-09-29 Over the last few decades families in many highly developed nations such as Great Britain have been held together by grandparents Yet as single motherhood spreads into this generation extended families without men or work are becoming more common The proportion of single mothers with daughters who are also state dependent single mothers is growing The British underclass has arrived Women who can see this happening around them and understand its roots are the ones most able to revive traditional values but policymakers are looking the other way This fuels alienation from mainstream political parties What Women Want argues that sociology and social policy in Britain have failed to recognize how women's orientation to paid work and a career remains different from men's Most women now have paid jobs but the happiest are those working only part time with plenty of time to enjoy motherhood and being a homemaker A revised sexual division of labor has emerged and the author argues that denial of this in Britain may be contributing to the breakdown of family life A working male partner is a major factor in making women happy The least content are single mothers dependent on state welfare who know that the state expects them to repay its support by becoming full time workers when their children reach a certain age Many single mothers may be victims of policies prioritizing work for women Single motherhood has grown alongside male breadwinners This is a new edition of a book previously distributed only in the United Kingdom

How to be the Goddess of Your Home Judith E. Walsh, 2005 In the late nineteenth century as dominance of British power in India led to the imposition of an alien culture on indigenous life ways the entire world of local domestic life and its most intimate relationships became contested ground This anthology offers translated selections from nine Bengali domestic manuals written by both men and women in the course of these debates and contestations In simple and often colloquial language these how to do it books act as guides to conducting relations within a family context child rearing and household management Often presented in the form of an intimate dialogue between husband and wife in the dead of the night the translations provide an unusual insight into the home of the Bengali bhadralok in colonial times As one hurtles from one representation of middle class reformism to another it becomes clear that this anthology is an invaluable addition to the rather thin collection of translated primary sources of this period The book will be of interest to students and scholars of gender studies history sociology lay readers interested in the culture of the colonial period as well as all informed women readers

Silent Sisterhood Patricia Branca,2013-06-26 This perceptive book studies the Victorian woman in the home and in the family One of the central purposes is to rescue Victorian woman from the realm of myth where her life was spent in frivolous trifles and instead to show how she had a major part to play in the practical management of the home The author makes judicious use of domestic manuals and other material written specifically for middle class women With statistical data to quantify the image as well this book presents a better understanding of what it was like to be a middle class woman in nineteenth century England Looking at the middle class woman s problems as mistress of the house her problems with domestics her problems as mother and her problems as woman we can begin not merely to characterise the middle class woman but to define her as an element of British social history and as a silent but significant agent of change The book was first published in 1975     The Lovers' Guide Marcelle d'Argy Smith,2002     Resources in Education ,1995     A Manual of the Practice of Medicine Sir Frederick Taylor,1890     Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1979 Literature cited in AGRICOLA Dissertations abstracts international ERIC ABI INFORM MEDLARS NTIS Psychological abstracts and Sociological abstracts Selection focuses on education legal aspects career aspects sex differences lifestyle and health Common format bibliographical information descriptors and abstracts and ERIC subject terms used throughout Contains order information Subject author indexes     Sexual Knowledge, Sexual Science Roy Porter,Mikulas Teich,1994-09 This volume is about those who have investigated sex from antiquity to the present day     British Social Attitudes Alison Park,John Curtice,Katarina Thomson,Lindsey Jarvis,Catherine Bromley,2003-12-03 an authoritative survey of social attitudes The Daily Telegraph The most comprehensive study of public opinion Financial Times the annual survey of British social attitudes a document arguably more significant than the urban and rural white papers rolled together New Start fascinating snapshot The Guardian a highly respected annual study Daily Mail an indispensable tool not just for governments but also for modern citizens to understand their fellows and themselves better The Times Higher The annual British Social Attitudes survey provides an indispensable guide to current political and social issues in contemporary Britain Compiled by Britain s largest independent social research institute the National Centre for Social Research it describes and reviews a broad range of current social attitudes and values derived from extensive nation wide interviews This 20th Report summarizes and interprets data from the most recent survey and draws invaluable comparisons with findings of previous years The most comprehensive review of changing British social values available the British Social Attitudes survey report is an essential reading for anyone seeking a guide to the topical issues and debates of today or engaged in contemporary social and political research Tom Sefton Centre for the Analysis of Social Exclusion CASE London School of Economics John Appleby The Kings Fund Arturo Alvarez Rosete The Kings Fund Ben Seyd Constitution Unit John Curtice Strathclyde University Geoffrey Evans Nuffield College Oxford Rosemary Crompton City University Michaela Brockmann City University Dick Wiggins City University Catherine Rothan Oxford University Anthony Heath Oxford University Alison Park National Centre for Social Research Paula Surridge University of Bristol Steve Fisher Oxford University John Curtice Strathclyde University Ian Christie Local Futures Group Sonia Exley National Centre for Social Research Catherine Bromley National Centre for Social Research
