A Comparative History of the Literary Draft in Europe Olga Beloborodova, Dirk Van Hulle, 2024-11-15 Literary drafts are a constant in literatures of all ages and linguistic areas and yet their role in writing processes in various traditions has seldom been the subject of systematic comparative scrutiny In 38 chapters written by leading experts in many different fields this book charts a comparative history of the literary draft in Europe and beyond It is organised according to eight categories of comparison distributed over the volume's two parts devoted respectively to Text i e the textual aspects of creative processes and Beyond Text i e aspects of creative processes that are not necessarily textual Across geographical temporal linguistic generic and media boundaries to name but a few this book uncovers idiosyncrasies and parallels in the surviving traces of human creativity while drawing the reader's attention to the materiality of literary drafts and the ephemerality of the writing process they capture

Private Press Books, 1966 London Art Worlds Jo Applin, Catherine Spencer, Amy Tobin, 2017-12-14 The essays in this collection explore the extraordinarily rich networks of international artists and art practices that emerged in and around London during the 1960s and 70s a period that saw an explosion of new media and fresh attitudes and approaches to making and thinking about art The contributors to London Art Worlds examine the many activities and movements that existed alongside more established institutions in this period from the rise of cybernetics and the founding of alternative publications to the public protests and new pedagogical models in London's art schools The essays explore how international artists and the rise of alternative venues publications and exhibitions along with a growing mobilization of artists around political and cultural issues ranging from feminism to democracy pushed the boundaries of the London art scene beyond the West End's familiar galleries and posed a radical challenge to established modes of making and understanding art Engaging wide ranging and original London Art Worlds provides a necessary perspective on the visual culture of the London art scene in the 1960s and 70s Art historians and scholars of the era will find these essays especially valuable and thought provoking In addition to the editors contributors to this volume are Elena Crippa Antony Hudek Dominic Johnson Carmen Juli Courtney J Martin Lucy Reynolds Joy Sleeman Isobel Whitelegg and Andrew Wilson

Contemporary Visual Arts, 2000      Assembling the Absurd Gillian Whiteley, 1998 This book is the first monograph on George Fullard 1923-73 one of the most inventive post war sculptors and the first complete survey of Fullard's sculpture exploring the themes, techniques and critical context of his works. The author explores the critical reception and cultural context of a diverse body of work. This ranges from the modelled figures made in the Cold War period and the idiosyncratic and unusual war assemblages of the 1960s through to the late enigmatic sculptures concerned with the sea. This monograph is a testament to the profoundly personal nature of the sculpture of George Fullard, an artist who explored the absurdities of life with a strong sense of irony. Gillian Whiteley is a full-time researcher and art historian currently completing a doctoral thesis on Fullard's sculpture at the University of Leeds. Her previous writings on Fullard include 'The impact of the survivor: the sculpture of George Fullard 1923-73' The Sculpture Journal 1977 and 'George Fullard: A Fastidious Primitive' exh. cat. Yorkshire Sculpture Park 1997. In 1998 she collaborated with the Mappin Art Gallery, Sheffield and Sheffield Hallam University to produce a major retrospective exhibition 'Playing with Paradox: George Fullard' which toured to Kettle's Yard, Cambridge.

Tate Modern: The Handbook Tate Modern (Gallery), 2016-09-20 Published to accompany the opening of a major new expansion to Tate Modern in summer 2016, this handbook offers a fascinating look at the gallery's acclaimed and growing collection of international modern and contemporary art. An essay by Frances Morris summarises the history of the collection, offering a unique insight into the considerations involved in building and shaping a national collection. Matthew Gale describes some of the changing themes in the gallery displays. The A-Z section of artists includes not only many of the most popular works in the collection, such as Matisse's 'The Snail' or Dalí's 'Lobster Telephone', but also features recent acquisitions from across the world. More than simply a guide to one of the most important museums in its field, the book is also an invaluable tool to the understanding of modern art and artists.

Installation and the Moving Image Catherine Elwes, 2015-05-12 Film and video create an illusory world, a reality elsewhere, and a material presence that both dramatizes and demystifies the magic trick of moving pictures. Beginning in the 1960s, artists have explored filmic and televisual phenomena in the controlled environments of galleries and museums, drawing on multiple antecedents in cinema, television, and the visual arts. This volume traces the lineage of moving image installation through architecture, painting, sculpture, performance, expanded cinema, film history, and countercultural film and video from the 1960s, 1970s, and 1980s. Sound is given due attention along with the shift from analogue to digital, issues of spectatorship, and the insights of cognitive science. Woven into this genealogy is a discussion of the procedural, political, theoretical, and ideological positions espoused by artists from the mid-twentieth century to the present. Historical constructs such as Peter Gidal's structural materialism, Maya Deren's notion of vertical and horizontal time, and identity politics are reconsidered in a contemporary context and intersect with more recent thinking on representation, subjectivity, and installation art. The book is written by a critic, curator, and practitioner who was a pioneer of British video and feminist art politics in the late 1970s. Elwes writes engagingly of her encounters with works by Anthony McCall Gillian Wearing David Hall and Janet Cardiff and her narrative is informed by exchanges with other practitioners While the book addresses the key formal theoretical and historical parameters of moving image installation it ends with a question What s in it for the artist     Contemporary ,2005     Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe Imogen Hart,Claire Jones,2020-10-29 By foregrounding the overlaps between sculpture and the decorative this volume of essays offers a model for a more integrated form of art history writing Through distinct case studies from a seventeenth century Danish altarpiece to contemporary British ceramics it brings to centre stage makers objects concepts and spaces that have been marginalized by the enforcement of boundaries within art and design discourse These essays challenge the classed raced and gendered categories that have structured the histories and languages of art and its making Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and practice of sculpture and the decorative arts and the methodologies of art history     Denkmal ISBN 9080842427 : Jan De Cock Jan de Cock,2006 Jan De Cock Denkmal ISBN 9080842427 ISBN 90 808424 2 7 978 90 808424 2 7 Slipcased 9 75 x 12 in 632 pgs 632 color and 60 b w U S 125 00 CDN 150 00 October Art     The Times Index ,2010 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007
