The Cognitive Humanities Peter Garratt, 2016-11-23 This book identifies the cognitive humanities with new approaches to literature and culture that engage with recent theories of the embodied mind in cognitive science If cognition should be approached less as a matter of internal representation a Cartesian inner theatre than as a form of embodied action how might cultural representation be rethought What can literature and culture reveal or challenge about embodied minds The essays in this book ask what new directions in the humanities open up when the thinking self is understood as a participant in contexts of action even as extended beyond the skin Building on cognitive literary studies but engaging much more extensively with 4E cognitive science embodied embedded enactive extended than previously the book uses case studies from many different historical settings such as early modern theatre and digital technologies and in different media narrative art performance to explore the embodied mind through culture

Applied Cognitive Linguistics for Language Teachers Jorg Roche, Moiken Jessen, 2023-10-01 The book offers an easy to read introduction on how cognitive linguistics treats and analyses language and how it differs from other approaches to linguistics Readers are invited to follow an inspiring approach to linguistics addressing many of the most pressing issues and challenges in language teaching and learning Many examples from a large variety of languages illustrate the theoretical underpinnings and make theory come to life

Language and Social Cognition Hanna Pishwa, 2009 In a collection of 16 papers eminent scholars from several disciplines present diverse and yet cohering perspectives on the expression of social knowledge its acquisition and management Hence the volume is an attempt to view the social functions of language in a novel systematic way Such an approach has been missing due to the complexity of the matter and the emphasis on purely cognitive properties of language The volume starts with a presentation of overarching issues of the social nature of humans and their language providing strong evidence for the social fundamentals of human nature and their reflection in language and culture The second section demonstrates how social functions can be displayed in discourse by using language play and humor irony and attributions as well as references to social schemas The chapters in the third part examine a wide range of particular linguistic elements carrying social cognitive functions An important finding is that social cognitive functions have to be inferred on the basis of social knowledge frequently with the help of non verbal cues since languages offer only few direct expressions for them In other words linguistic devices used to express social content tend to be multifunctional Interestingly this multifunctionality does not prevent their rapid recognition The volume presents valuable information to linguists by widening the cognitive linguistic framework and by contributing to a better understanding of the role of pragmatics It is also beneficial to social and cognitive psychologists by offering a broader view on the encoding and decoding of social aspects Finally it offers a number of fruitful ideas to students of cultural and communication studies

Cognitive Neural Mechanism of Semantic Rhetoric
Qiaoyun Liao, Lijun Meng, 2022-10-21

This book is a necessary supplement to the theoretical exploration into semantic rhetoric particularly a breakthrough in the study of the relationship between the source domain and target domain involved in the construction of semantic rhetorical discourse The study focuses on rhetorical expressions constructed by means of semantic variation or deviation of concepts Based on the holistic cognitive pragmatic model and the framework of impartment and inheritance of connotation and denotation this book constructs a new framework the Annotation Denotation Relevance Inheritance Model ADRIM to explain the construing of semantic rhetoric Besides rooted in the Index Hypothesis Theory and the research paradigm of affordance derivation in language comprehension three ERP experiments on metaphor irony and pun are conducted to demonstrate the psychological reality that people activate possible feature extraction in the process of understanding semantic rhetoric With those sample analyses and experiments the feasibility and operability of ADRIM are proved The book unfolds a combined approach of speculative research and empirical research and can provide a new methodological alternative for semantic rhetorical studies in different languages This title will be an essential read to students and scholars of Linguistics East Asian Studies and social workers who are interested in Language Studies in general
