

Time Out (Simile, Metaphor, Alleiteration Poem)

Help how much my heart hurts my mouth is as dry as a desert my thought is sore my voice is a goner
my heart is beating as fast as a tiger my hand is a rattling snake my face is a tomato bye bye, boring life i cannot take it no more i lay my head upon my knee

now blow the whistle referee

Andrew Rice-Oxley, 2007 Through the Archway Memoirs of Mouse Day Boy at Penly Grange is a vivid portrait of an English prep school in the 1950s and a story of close friendship and bitter rivalry When after almost fifty years Timothy Moss nicknamed Mouse unexpectedly meets the notorious school bully Burton he is surprised to find his memories of his old school being challenged Now on the brink of retirement he sets out to record his version of the education and eccentric characters at Penly Grange Preparatory School for Boys in the 1950s Not only a book about entertaining and unforgettable personalities this semi autobiographical novel is a compelling study of memoir writing which explores the deep attachments of childhood the highs and lows of growing up and the healing and insight that can be gained from revisiting the past Suitable for all adults and children over 13 Revised edition December 2007 Primary English Audit and Test Sue Reid, Angela Sawyer, Mary Bennett-Hartley, 2014-02-15 This popular widely recommended text supports trainees on primary initial teacher training courses where a secure knowledge and understanding of English is required for the award of Qualified Teacher Status QTS A rigorous and focused test enables trainees to identify their strengths and weaknesses in English This test can be revisited at key stages in their course as a tool to monitor and evaluate progress The fourth edition has been updated in line with the new National Curriculum includes more information on expanding and developing a knowledge of English and is linked to the 2012 Teachers Standards Holding True Susan Ioannou, 2010-09-21 As a writer if you thrive on encouragement this book is for you From three decades of editing teaching and writing fiction and poetry Ioannou knows well the thorns and honey of the literary life When we write we are up against the wall Who am I What do I feel What do I think Writing forces us to be alone with our thoughts to work through the wrinkles of our own living At the same time when the lines are flowing there is no greater high what keeps a writer addicted These pages bring ample light and balm support and inspiration What's more there's laughter too as fable and satire poke gentle fun at foibles and absurdities on the literary scene and remind all writers of the importance of holding true

Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i.e. the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45-60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two-week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book's final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950's Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections
