SEAL's Technique Claire Adams, Pacey I haven't breathed properly in four years The bullet that ripped my girlfriend away from me in Iraq ripped a May shaped hole in my heart that I don't want to fill The only time my lungs fully remember how to do something as simple as breathing air is when I'm with a woman who can never be mine In a relationship I'll take it Engaged Yes please Married Hell yeah Then I met her The blonde with the boyfriend who's involved with everything I hate I don't know if she knows what he's into all I know is that my pants aren't the only thing that tighten when I'm around her And now history is trying to repeat itself and I'm letting it happen over my dead body Juliana My life is comfortable My boyfriend is seriously good looking and my best friend is fun supportive and always up for having a good time I'm content until I'm not My perfectly constructed life comes crashing down around me and it's a mysterious super hunky ex SEAL who's suddenly at the right place at the right time Every time But when choices I didn't make impact my life in ways I never thought possible I'm alone Screwed Terrified When everything is on the line and your life is on the wrong side of the plumbing system what do you do I don't know I don't know because this wasn't my mess to clean up I like to think I'm an optimist but how is it possible that anything good can come of this

The SEAL's Sexy Neighbor Leslie North, Friends They're just friends right At least that's what Navy SEAL Sutton Gray tells himself But with his neighbor Marisol living just feet away it's a constant battle to bite down on his unneighborly desires Sutton's been alone most of his life it's how he likes it so he's reluctant to cave to Marisol's attempt at making him part of the apartment building family no matter how much she brightens his days But when she becomes the target of a shady character not only do his protective instincts kick into overdrive so does his burning attraction Why did Sutton have to kiss her Now it's all Marisol can think of That and his sculpted body and his dark eyes She knows she's in trouble And she's thinking thoughts no real friend should indulge in but she can't help but be drawn to the gruff battle hardened SEAL It's clear something about his time in the military is haunting him and she knows kisses alone no matter how consuming won't be enough to heal him The more time they spend together the closer they get but time is something that may be running out for them both
