1. How do the witches lull Macbeth into a false sense of security?
2. How does Macbeth feel after his second meeting with the witches? What things might reassure him, and what things might trouble him?
3. When Macbeth says (Act 4, scene 1) that “the flighty purpose never is o’ertook/Unless the deed go with it”, what does he mean in general, and in the particular situation in which he says it?
4. How does Lady Macduff feel about her husband’s leaving her alone? Why has he done this?
5. When Ross comes to see Lady Macduff, how does he behave and why?
6. Briefly explain Macduff’s description to Malcolm of the state of affairs in Scotland (Act 4, scene 3). What does the audience know which makes Macduff’s account even more painful?
7. Why might Malcolm be suspicious of Macduff? Does he know as much as the audience does about why Macbeth and Macduff are enemies?
8. Malcolm pretends to be even more evil than Macbeth. Why does he do this? What does he discover by doing so?
9. In Act 4, scene 3, there is an account of the miraculous healing powers of the English king - what is the purpose of this? What effect does it have on the audience?
10. When Macduff asks Ross about his family, Ross replies, “...they were well at peace when I did leave ‘em”. Explain why he gives this answer and what it might mean.

Royal Power and Authority in Shakespeare's Late Tragedies Alisa Manninen, 2015-10-05 William Shakespeare explores political survival as a question of interaction at court in King Lear Macbeth and Antony and Cleopatra Through a discussion of authority as an element that is distinct from power this book offers a new perspective on the importance of acts of persuasion and the contribution the late tragedies make to Shakespeare's portrayal of monarchy It argues that the most productive uses of the material power to judge or reward are those that reinforce royal authority and establish the monarch at the centre of the web of noble relationships In the late tragedies rulership is exercised at court It acquires a nature of its own as the interaction of powerful and potentially powerful individuals among the nobility The persuasive exercise of authority complements the tangible power that is founded on the monarch's material resources so that consent to the monarch's supremacy is obtained through various discourses of justification and the performance of the monarch's social role Shakespeare's combination of emotional intimacy with political concerns becomes central to the tragedies of these three plays when the failure to establish control over power and authority leads to the breakdown of established values and political traditions
