The Unknown Craftsman

Muneyoshi Yanagi

The Unknown Craftsman:

The Unknown Craftsman Muneyoshi Yanagi, Bernard Leach, 1989 Mr Yanagi sees folk art as a manifestation of the essential world from which art philosophy and religion arise and in which the barriers between them disappear The implications of the author's ideas are both far reaching and practical The Unknown Craftsman Soetsu Yanagi, Bernard Leach, 1972 The Tomb of the Unknown Craftsman Grayson Perry, 2011 Catalogue of exhibition combining Grayson Perry's own work with objects from across the British Museum's collection The Unknown Craftsman Muneyoshi Yanagi, 1978 The Unknown Craftsman Soetsu Yanagi, 1978-12 Grayson Perry: the Tomb of the Unknown Craftsman Grayson Perry, 2025-03-06 The Tomb of an Unknown Craftsman is of a treasure hoard from a distinct civilisation The difference is that it is a civilisation of one The territory it springs from is my imagination The relationship between my personal themes and obsessions and the vastness of world culture as represented in the British Museum is like a narrow pilgrimage trail across an infinite plain Grayson Perry Grayson Perry's centrepiece to this fascinating journey is a major artwork a metal tomb in the form of a ship encrusted with reliefs and artistic cargo based on or actually cast from objects in the collection of the British Museum The occupant sails into the afterlife surrounded by the talismans of many faiths and peoples This is a memorial to all the anonymous craftsmen that over the centuries have fashioned the man made wonders of the world many of which are on display in the Museum Around the tomb the other artworks ceramics tiles cast metal sculpture textiles and prints are laid out in ritualistic symmetry as if they once belonged somewhere else Alongside his own works Grayson Perry presents a personal selection of objects from the British Museum that are the inspiration for his pieces or connected strongly with them thematically or aesthetically Including an introduction by Grayson Perry and lavishly illustrated this book takes us to the fantasy world of a contemporary artist who never fails to challenge and unsettle his audience The Unknown Craftsman : a Japanese Insight Into Beauty Soetsu Yanagi Hamada (Bernard Leach, Shoji), 1972

Grayson Perry and the Tomb of the Unknown Craftsman Grayson Perry, 2012 Hugh Cortazzi - Collected Writings Hugh Cortazzi, 2013-06-17 Special areas biographies history cultural exchange arts business and foreign affairs Surf Craft Richard Kenvin, 2014-07-18 The evolution of the surfboard from traditional Hawaiian folk designs to masterpieces of mathematical engineering to mass produced fiberglass Surfboards were once made of wood and shaped by hand objects of both cultural and recreational significance Today most surfboards are mass produced with fiberglass and a stew of petrochemicals moving or floating billboards for athletes and their brands emphasizing the commercial rather than the cultural Surf Craft maps this evolution examining surfboard design and craft with 150 color images and an insightful text From the ancient Hawaiian alaia the traditional board of the common people to the unadorned boards designed with mathematical precision but built by hand by Bob Simmons to the store bought longboards popularized by the 1959 surf exploitation movie Gidget board design reflects both aesthetics and history The decline of traditional alaia board riding is not only an example of a lost art but also a metaphor for the disintegration of traditional culture after the Republic of Hawaii was overthrown and annexed in the 1890s In his text Richard Kenvin looks at the craft and design of surfboards from a historical and cultural perspective He views board design as an exemplary model of mingei or art of the people and the craft philosophy of Soetsu Yanagi Yanagi believed that a design s true beauty and purpose are revealed when it is put to its intended use In its purest form the craft of board building along with the act of surfing itself exemplifies mingei Surf Craft pays particular attention to Bob Simmons s boards which are striking examples of this kind of functional design mirroring the work of postwar modern California designers Surf Craft is published in conjunction with an exhibition at San Diego s Mingei International Museum

Korea: The Past and the Present (2 vols) , 2008-01-31 Established in 1982 the British Association for Korean Studies has published nine sets of Papers in the period 1991 2005 the outcome of conferences study days and workshops The themes of Korea past and Korea present were selected to give the editors and BAKS council the widest choice of options in terms of scholarship subject matter and interest Rhizomes Nathalie Ramière, Rachel Varshney, 2021-02-19 This volume Rhizomes is a challenging path into a very multidisciplinary set of papers Papers range across cultural studies and film to applied linguistics to sociolinguistics and as gathered in this one volume the result of postgraduate student research of a very high order they force readers to think critically of disciplines their assumed boundaries and most importantly the usefulness of assuming the enduring value of such boundaries This is not to say that anything goes but the diversity of areas under scrutiny means that sharper re thinking of one s own comfort zones is necessarily one key outcome when confronted with a volume like this This is one advantage of the selected papers besides the obvious one of having at your finger tips a simple way of delving into a challenging diversity Brian Ridge Campion College Sydney This is a wonderful collection of papers which demonstrates the power and vitality of contemporary literary and cultural research The scope of the papers the diversity of the subject matter and the willingness of their authors to work across disciplinary boundaries work together to create an exemplary collection of research for the twenty first century multidisciplinary multigeneric and multimodal like 21st century texts and media Greg Hainge s opening paper sets the stage for the diverse and engaging papers that follow With his own examples of rhizomatics drawn from music Greg immediately has the reader acknowledging the multidisciplinary and multimodality of contemporary texts and so the need for research that can address the richness and complexity of these texts In Part 1 we have two papers that address the issue of the limitations of conventional research methodology in their own fields language acquisition film studies and propose alternative and more productive methodologies The exciting thing about this section is that these are fields normally considered very different and without much to say to one another and yet the combination works to create a dialogue that extends across these and many other fields of research Most importantly both challenge the dichotomising of research and analytical methods that has worked to impoverish their fields and the research on which it is based Part 2 presents papers on a range of marginalised social positionings and experiences and in the process demonstrates both the power of research to uncover what has been ignored or elided in contemporary histories how many westerners know of the long history of Chinese women in film Or of an Aboriginal Taiwanese literature as well as the power of new perspectives new ways of thinking the research subject to open up areas of study such as dating manuals and country music both conventionally dismissed as inherently trivial and or sexist In Part 3 the papers all play brilliantly with the notion of connectivity demonstrating for readers the inextricability of texts and meaning systems verbal visual and other with the cultural contexts in which they operate and so the diverse ways they may be deployed These papers banish forever any reliance on a formalist reading or methodology for the analysis of text and meaning And again the range of subject matter is breath taking and argues the need for cross disciplinary transdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research practice Part 4 takes the reader into the realm of transformations challenging the ways in which textual and systemic changes articulate profound cultural changes in the societies that produce them So we learn about grammatical interventions in the Chinese language as feminine and neuter pronouns are added to the gender free Chinese language and consider the major cultural change that both caused this change and is subsequently produced by it We consider the ways in which cinema has evolved as an art form under the influence of its material and verbal technologies And we consider the ways in which Chinese poetry has entered a range of cultural practices in the west and the east and again consider how its traditional meanings and significance are maintained and communicate to these new contexts and the nature of the transcultural experience this generates For the academic student or interested reader this collection offers a breath taking scope of subject matter and a vital and engaged approach to the material that makes this collection a research page turner Professor Anne Cranny Francis Department of Critical and Cultural Studies Macquarie University Sydney
