Letters from the Ecotone Andrew Nagy-Benson, Andrea Lloyd, 2022-12-13 Letters from the Ecotone invites readers into an open hearted dialogue between friends a scientist and a pastor In a series of letters written during the pandemic Lloyd and Nagy Benson explore the realities of climate change from the perspectives of ecology and Christian theology The authors seek common ground where science and religion meet and share a vision of flourishing life on earth At a time when the climate crisis is quickly emerging as an existential threat this book charts a journey imbued with the insights of ecological science and the wisdom of the Christian tradition

Learning Through Problem Solving

Cindy E. Hmelo, Susan M. Williams, 2014-02-24 The articles in this special issue represent the findings of researchers working in classroom settings to explore key issues in learning through problem solving Although they vary in the domains being studied the age of students and the methods they employ there are numerous common themes that can inform both theory and practice The authors have grappled with the complex task of putting problem based curricula into practice They report here the difficulties they faced the factors contributing to their successes and the lessons they have learned
