Blended learning environments to foster self-directed learning Christo van der Westhuizen,Mncedisi C. Maphalala,Roxanne Bailey,2023-03-31 This book on blended learning environments to foster self directed learning highlights the focus on research conducted in several teaching and learning contexts where blended learning had been implemented and focused on the fostering of self directed learning Several authors have contributed to the book and each chapter provides a unique perspective on blended learning and self directed learning research From each chapter it becomes evident that coherence on the topics mentioned is established One of the main aspects drawn in this book and addressed by several authors in the book is the use of the Community of Inquiry CoI framework when implementing teaching and learning strategies in blended learning environments to foster self directed learning This notion of focusing on the CoI framework is particularly evident in both theoretical and empirical dissemination presented in this book What makes this book unique is the fact that researchers and peers in varied fields would benefit from the findings presented by each chapter albeit theoretical methodological or empirical in nature this in turn provides opportunities for future research endeavours to further the narrative of how blended learning environments can be used to foster self directed learning

The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R. Brunsdon,2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews

Theoretical Approaches to Multi-Cultural Positive Psychological Interventions Llewellyn Ellardus Van Zyl,Sebastiaan

Rothmann Sr.,2019-06-11 This volume provides theoretical perspectives on and approaches to the development or enhancement of positive psychological capacities within various multi cultural professional and organizational contexts Specifically it presents theoretical frameworks for the identification development and optimization of positive psychological capacities through a contemporary multi cultural and multi disciplinary lens In recent years the applicability of positive psychological intervention PPI techniques has transposed the boundaries of clinical practice into a wide array of complementary domains such as law education business and even design sciences such as architecture These interventions target the enhancement of positive psychological capacities e g strength identification and use high performance learning appreciative design job crafting in order to not only improve individual functioning well being and the treatment of various forms of psychopathology but also to enhance team functioning performance organizational growth and community development Despite its importance very little research has been done on the design of PPIs applicable to multi cultural contexts The contributions to this volume provide insights into this hitherto neglected area of research Theological perspectives on re-imagining leadership in post-COVID-19 Africa Philip La G. du Toit,Alfred R Brunsdon,2023-11-30 Post coronavirus disease 2019 COVID 19 realities are challenging leaders in all spheres of society in many ways From the onset of the pandemic leaders on every level were challenged to provide appropriate guidance in the face of new and adverse realities From the micro level of local congregations to the macro level of national governments leaders were required to provide the type of leadership that would not only address immediate obstacles but simultaneously be visionary in the face of uncertainties that became the hallmark of post COVID 19 society In this book the authors reflect on leadership in a post COVID 19 society from bibliological practical theological missiological and ethical perspectives Although the authors have the global village in mind the focus leans towards the African context The book aims to contribute meaningfully to a much needed and re imagined vision of leaders which fits post COVID 19 societies Becoming a teacher Josef de

Beer,2020-12-31 This book disseminates original research on learning in and from practice in pre service teacher education Authors such as Lederman and Lederman describe the student teaching practicum or work integrated learning WIL which is an essential component of pre service teacher education as the elephant in the room These authors note that the capstone experience in any teacher education programme is the student teaching practicum a fter all this is where the rubber hits the road However many teacher educators will agree that this WIL component is sometimes very insufficient in assisting the student teacher to develop their own footing and voice as a teacher This is the gap that this research book addresses Most of the chapters in the book report empirical data with the exception of two chapters that can be categorized as systematic reviews WIL is addressed from various angles in the chapters Chapter 6 focuses on research related to what makes Finnish teacher education so effective and in Chapter 4 researchers of the University of Johannesburg disseminate their findings on establishing a teaching school based on Finnish insights in Johannesburg Chapter 3 highlights the challenges faced in open and distance learning teacher education contexts Several of the chapters disseminate research findings on alternative interventions to classic WIL namely where safe spaces or laboratories are created for student teachers to learn and grow professionally These could either be simulations such as software programmes and avatars in the intervention described in Chapter 2 student excursions as the findings in chapters 5 7 and 10 portray or alternative approaches to WIL e g Chapters 11 and 12 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education The target audience is scholars working in the fields of pre service teacher education work integrated learning and self directed learning The book makes a unique contribution in terms of firstly its extensive use of Cultural Historical Activity Theory as a research lens and secondly in drawing on various theoretical frameworks Both quantitative and qualitative research informed the findings of the book
