Taking a Deep Breath for the Story to Begin Ernst M. Conradie,Lai Pan-Chiu,2022-08-23 This first volume in the proposed series will address some preliminary issues that are typical of a prolegomena in any systematic theology It will focus on the following question How does the story of who the Triune God is and what this God does relate to the story of life on Earth Or Is the Christian story part of the earth s story or is the earth s story part of God s story from creation to consummation This raises many issues on the relatedness of religion and theology the place of theology in multi disciplinary collaboration the notion of revelation the possibility of knowledge of God the interplay between convictions and narrative accounts hermeneutics the difference between natural theology and a theology of nature and the role of science vis vis indigenous worldviews

Rethinking the Way We Teach Science Louis Rosenblatt,2011-03-17 Offering a fresh take on inquiry this book draws on current research and theory in science education literacy and educational psychology as well as the history and philosophy of science to make its case for transforming the way science is taught Re thinking the Way We Teach Science addresses major themes in national reform documents and movements how to place students at the center of what happens in the classroom how to shift the focus from giving answers to building arguments how to move beyond narrow disciplinary boundaries to integrated explorations of ideas and issues that connect directly with students and most especially the importance of engaging students in discussions of an interactive and explanatory character Deeply anchored in the classroom highly interactive and relevant across grade levels and subject matter above all this is a book about choosing to place the authority of reason over that of right answers
