^a The data concerning the female red-tailed tropicbird population and parental behavior described herein were previously published in Journal of Ornithology. These data were used in this manuscript for comparison to the data reported in this manuscript regarding the observed relationships between parental behavior and sex.

I independently wrote these two programs, using paper tape (there will likely be memory for each one now, thank to the introduction of multitasking, via Windows or other systems) separately, and printed collection numbers. I am confident no other user could do so.
