His home town of Nazareth and went to church on the sabbath and stood up to read The elders delivered the book of Isaiah to Him and He opened the book to the place where He read these words The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind to set at liberty them that are bruised To preach the acceptable year of the Lord Luke 4 18 19 KJV Jesus chose this passage of scripture because it was known to be a prophecy of the coming Messiah and it is a concise outline of the purpose and ministry calling of our Lord The Holy Spirit living in the hearts of every born again Christian is working to fulfill this scripture for us all Jesus Christ by The Spirit is also drawing all people to Him for their salvation through the measure of faith which our loving Father God has given to every person It is will of God that no human being perish but that everyone would come to repentance It is therefore His will that we all hear and respond to the gospel That our broken hearts be healed that the chains of our captive bondage be broken our physical and spiritual eyes be opened and every bruise and wound we carry be healed That is the Theme Calling and Purpose by which this Daily Devotional has been inspired to be written The Word of God is clear in that our Heavenly Father wants all people to accept His salvation but just as true He wants all to be healed and delivered It is my prayer that this Devotional will be used of The Lord to help accomplish this work in your lives

Stories to Caution the World ,2012-09-01 Stories to Caution the World is the first complete translation of Jingshi tongyan the second of Feng Menglong s three collections of stories which were pivotal in the development of Chinese vernacular fiction These tales whose importance in the Chinese literary canon and in world literature is without question have been compared to Boccaccio s Decameron and the stories of A Thousand and One Nights Peopled with scholars emperors ministers generals and a gallery of ordinary men and women in their everyday surroundings merchants and artisans prostitutes and courtesans matchmakers and fortune tellers monks and nuns servants and maids thieves and imposters the stories in this collection provide a vivid panorama of the bustling world of imperial China before the end of the Ming dynasty Feng Menglong collected popular stories from a variety of sources some dating back centuries and circulated them via the flourishing seventeenth century publishing industry He not only saved them from oblivion but elevated the status of vernacular literature and provided material for authors of the great late Ming and Qing novels to draw upon As in their translation of the first collection of Feng s trilogy Stories Old and New Shuhui and Yunqin Yang include all forty stories as well as Feng s interlinear and marginal comments and all of the verse woven throughout the stories For other titles in the collection go to <http://www.washington.edu/uwpress/books/ming.html>
