A Philosophy of Madness Wouter Kusters, 2020-12-01 The philosophy of psychosis and the psychosis of philosophy a philosopher draws on his experience of madness In this book philosopher and linguist Wouter Kusters examines the philosophy of psychosis and the psychosis of philosophy By analyzing the experience of psychosis in philosophical terms Kusters not only emancipates the experience of the psychotic from medical classification he also emancipates the philosopher from the narrowness of textbooks and academia allowing philosophers to engage in real life praxis philosophy in vivo

Philosophy and madness Kusters s preferred non medicalized term coexist one mirroring the other Kusters draws on his own experience of madness two episodes of psychosis twenty years apart as well as other first person narratives of psychosis Speculating about the maddening effect of certain words and thought he argues and demonstrates that the steady flow of philosophical deliberation may sweep one into a full blown acute psychotic episode Indeed a certain kind of philosophizing may result in confusion paradoxes unworldly insights and circular frozenness reminiscent of madness Psychosis presents itself to the psychotic as an inescapable truth and reality Kusters evokes the mad person s philosophical or existential amazement at reality thinking time and space drawing on classic autobiographical accounts of psychoses by Antonin Artaud Daniel Schreber and others as well as the work of phenomenological psychiatrists and psychologists and such phenomenologists as Edmund Husserl and Maurice Merleau Ponty He considers the philosophical mystic and the mystical philosopher tracing the mad undercurrent in the Husserlian philosophy of time visits the cloud castles of mystical madness encountering LSD devotees philosophers theologians and nihilists and falling to earth finds anxiety emptiness delusions and hallucinations Madness and philosophy proceed and converge toward a single vanishing point Agent 47: Birth Of The Hitman #3 Chris Sebela,2018-01-24 It s graduation day Diana Burnwood struggles to balance her two lives her psychotic mentor and her conscience as she prepares to make the first kill on her road to avenging her parents While Agent 47 and his brother 6 make their move to escape the Institute and end up changing their lives and world history forever in one bloody blow Until the Sun Breaks Down: A Künstlerroman in Three Parts Joseph Nicolello,2021-01-29 Written when the author was in his early and mid twenties Until the Sun Breaks Down is a contemporary American Künstlerroman modeled on Dante s Divine Comedy In three parts and one hundred chapters that mirror Dante s classic poem Nicolello takes the reader through present day American towns and cities infernal purgatorial and paradisal aspects with nothing left off the table At once a book that can be read without any prior knowledge of Dante as the chronicle of William Fellows child of a poverty stricken single mother and precocious student dreaming of something better than what society offers the book will serve as a guide to untold disconsolate Westerners who are wondering what has happened to American literature where Catholic voices might emerge from and how and a bulwark against militant atheism by immersing the subject head on and elucidating how to remove one s self from technological desolation and recapture the essence of the Logos Incarnate or the love that moves the sun and other stars Mean Streets and Raging Bulls Richard Martin,2000-01-01 Classic film noir was Hollywood s dark cinema of crime and corruption a genre underpinned by a tone of existential cynicism which stripped bare the myth of the American Dream and offered a bleak nightmarish vision of a fragmented society that rhymed with many of the social realities of forties and fifties America Mean Streets and Raging Bulls explores how since its apparent demise in the late fifties the noir genre has been revitalized during the post studio era The book is divided into two sections In the first the evolution of film noir is contextualized in relation to both American cinema's industrial transformation and the post Depression history of the United States. In the second, the evolution of neo noir and its relation to classic film noir is illustrated by detailed reference to representative texts including Chinatown (Roman Polanski 1974), Night Moves (Arthur Penn 1975), Taxi Driver (Martin Scorsese 1976), Blood Simple (Joel and Ethan Coen 1984), After Hours (Martin Scorsese 1985), Sea of Love (Harold Becker 1989), Reservoir Dogs (Quentin Tarantino 1992) and Romeo is Bleeding (Peter Medak 1994).
