

"A Graduation Blessing"™

By Barbara D. MacAdam

Embarking on a journey which began some time ago, how could you have imagined all the things you'd come to know. You learned to use each challenge as an opportunity, to overcome each problem - despite adversity.

It wasn't always easy keeping up with with friends at school, but YOU held on to your beliefs, and followed "the golden rule." You found your voice & chose a path that honors who you are. And that, I think, may be your greatest lesson learned thus far.

For no one could be prouder of the person you've become, and that is why I'm confident that the best is yet to come. May you never waste a moment wishing life was not unfair. Rather use the gifts God gave to you, to change the world out there.

Your Graduation signals us that you are on your way. So spread your wings and fly my dear, forever and a day!

30 Ways a Mother Can Bless Her Children John Trent, 2015-08-27 Kids long to be unconditionally loved and accepted by their mom. Children need to know their worth before the rest of the world defines it for them. As a mom, it is easy to take for granted that your child already knows how much you love them, but sometimes they don't. 30 Ways a Mother Can Bless Her Children is packed with 30 simple, fun, and affordable activities to show your sons or daughters that you love and appreciate them. From bedtime storytelling to cooking simple meals together, easily turn these simple activities into insightful blessings that will positively impact your kids for a lifetime. Using the story of Isaac and other Bible passages as models, John Trent shares practical ways to bless your child. The 5 Elements of the Blessing In every home, with every mother, there is a choice: a choice to bless her children. A mother can choose to communicate that incredible gift of unconditional love and acceptance that her children long for, or she can actively or passively withhold the blessing from her children, opening the door to loneliness and emotional hurt. This easy-to-read book will help you demonstrate the message that God has for us: all children in every home deserve to know that their mom and Jesus are crazy about them. Make this truth a reality for your child and give them the gift of the Blessing so they can be free to serve others, gain personal strength, and grow in God's purpose for them. Help your child embrace the truth that with God's love, they can do and be more than they ever imagined. Blessing others is a choice. Before turning to Jesus, author John Trent harbored resentment and hatred toward his alcoholic father for years. After he gave his life to Christ, John forgave his father and realized that he was given the same choice as his father: to bless or withhold blessing from his own family. Since then, John has shown millions of families how to break the cycle of rejection and bless one another. What are the 5 Elements of the Blessing? But what exactly does it mean to give a blessing? The blessing as described in Scripture always included five elements: Meaningful and appropriate touch (giving a hug before school or a goodnight kiss before bedtime), A spoken message telling your child how much they mean to you or praising them for being kind to others, Attaching high value to the one being blessed, speaking and affirming God's truth and value over your child, Picturing a special future for him or her, finding ways to encourage your child's potential and envisioning ways they can impact the world for Christ. An active commitment to fulfill the blessing, learn to build a habit of consistently showing your child how much they mean to you.
