

The Kite Runner

I can understand an extract from an American novel.

- 1 SPEAKING Work in pairs. Look at the different covers for the novel The Kite Runner. What do you think the story is about?
- 2 Read the extract from The Kite Runner. Which cover do you think matches the extract the best? Why?
- 3 Read the text again. What is it about?
  - 1 Afghan cinema
  - 2 Growing up in Afghanistan
  - 3 The different social classes in Afghanistan

Reading Strategy

- When you do a gapped sentences task, first read the text quickly to find out what it is about.
- Then read the text more carefully and think about what information is missing in each gap.
- Look at the parts of the text before and after each gap to find words or information that link it to one of the missing sentences.
- Pay attention to vocabulary and grammar structures which may also provide ideas.
- After you have matched a sentence to each gap, check that the remaining sentence doesn't match any of the gaps.

- 4 Read the Reading Strategy. Match the missing sentences (A–E) with the gaps (1–4). There is one extra sentence.

- A Hassan and I were stunned. Dazed.
- B I'd hear him singing to himself in the foyer as he ironed, singing old Hazara songs in his nasal voice.
- C Not in the usual sense, anyhow.
- D We had been close friends since childhood.
- E Because history isn't easy to overcome.

- 5 Match 1–5 with A–E to make sentences about the extract.

- 1 The narrator and Hassan had a childhood that
- 2 The narrator doesn't think that he and Hassan
- 3 Certain cultural and social factors couldn't change the fact that the boys
- 4 Baba laughed a lot because the boys
- 5 In the last paragraph, we discover the narrator and Hassan

- A had spent their childhood together.
- B had a typical friendship.
- C had different daily experiences.
- D were confused about an actor's nationality.
- E was similar to Ali and Baba's.

Race Among Friends Marianne Modica,2015-11-10 Many saw the 2008 election of Barack Obama as a sign that America had moved past the issue of race that a colorblind society was finally within reach But as Marianne Modica reveals in Race Among Friends attempts to be colorblind do not end racism in fact ignoring race increases the likelihood that racism will occur in our schools and in society This intriguing volume focuses on a racially friendly suburban charter school called Excellence Academy highlighting the ways that students and teachers think about race and act out racial identity Modica finds that even in an environment where students of all racial backgrounds work and play together harmoniously race affects the daily experiences of students and teachers in profound but unexamined ways Some teachers she notes feared that talking about race in the classroom would open them to charges of racism so they avoided the topic And rather than generate honest and constructive conversations about race student friendships opened the door for insensitive racial comments by whites resentment and silence by blacks and racially biased administrative practices In the end the school s friendly environment

did not promote and may have hindered serious discussion of race and racial inequity The desire to ignore race in favor of a colorblind society Modica writes has become an entrenched part of American culture But as Race Among Friends shows when race becomes a taboo subject it has serious ramifications for students and teachers of all ethnic origins

Television and Reading Susan B. Neuman, 1986 Drawing on communications psychological and educational studies this paper examines television's influence on reading performance and school achievement The first section of the paper reviews and synthesizes major studies dealing with the introduction of television in a community and with correlations between television use and school achievement pointing out that many of the studies have flawed methodologies and weak links between theory and methodology The second section of the paper synthesizes the results of eight statewide reading assessments and a secondary analysis of the 1984 National Assessment of Educational Progress using hypotheses based on four theories of displacement the idea that watching television replaces other activities in children's lives It concludes that television viewing is associated with a different set of needs and gratifications than
