First Editions of American Authors Frank Maier, 1820      The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1898

Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1898      The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations      Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language photo texts considering a variety of examples from America Britain Canada and France Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky the contributors' analyses address photo textuality's implications for representation and its cultural contexts A truly interdisciplinary collection Photo Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies English romance languages as well as contributors who work in media studies film graphic arts Photo Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres including photo texts that elude genre classification Besides documentary and biography nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes portraiture documentary tourist snapshots and media images as well as to the standard photo textual forms of published album and photo essay BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Collected Books ALLEN OSB; AHEARN AHEARN (PATRICIA.), Patricia Ahearn, 2013-02 An introduction to and advice on book collecting with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20 000 collectible books published in English including translations over the last three centuries about half are literary titles in the broadest sense novels poetry plays mysteries science fiction and children's books and the other half are non fiction Americana travel and exploration finance cookbooks color plate medicine science photography Mormonism sports et al      The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1877      British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1888      The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 2, Prose Writing 1820-1865 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994 This is the fullest and richest account of the American Renaissance available in any literary history The narratives in this volume made for a four fold perspective on literature social cultural intellectual and aesthetic Michael D Bell describes the social conditions of the literary vocation that shaped the growth of a professional literature in the United States Eric Sundquist draws upon broad cultural patterns his account of the writings of exploration slavery and the frontier is an interweaving of disparate voices outlooks and traditions Barbara L Packer s sources come largely from intellectual history the theological and philosophical controversies that prepared the way for transcendentalism Jonathan Arac s categories are formalist he sees the development of antebellum fiction as a dialectic of prose genres the emergence of a literary mode out of the clash of national local and personal forms Together these four narratives constitute a basic reassessment of American prose writing between 1820 and 1865 It is an achievement that will remain authoritative for our time and that will set new directions for coming decades in American literary scholarship

Transatlantic Literature and Author Love in the Nineteenth Century Paul Westover, Ann Wierda Rowland, 2016-09-22 This book is about Anglo American literary heritage It argues that readers on both sides of the Atlantic shaped the contours of international English in the 1800s expressing love for books and authors in a wide range of media and social practices It highlights how in the wake of American independence the affection bestowed on authors who became international objects of celebration and commemoration was a major force in the invention of transnational English literature the popular canon defined by shared language and tradition While love as such is difficult to quantify and recover the records of such affection survive not just in print but also in other media in monuments in architecture and in the ephemera of material culture Thus this collection brings into view a wide range of nineteenth century expressions of love for literature and its creators

The Concise Cambridge History of English Literature George Sampson, Reginald Charles Churchill, 1970-02-02 Based on The Cambridge history of English literature

Lewis Carroll Among His Books Charlie Lovett, 2015-01-09 Charles Lutwidge Dodgson known better by his pseudonym Lewis Carroll was a 19th century English logician mathematician photographer and novelist He is especially remembered for his children s tale Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and its sequel Through the Looking Glass By the time of Dodgson s death in 1898 Alice the integration of the two volumes had become the most popular children s book in England By the time of his centenary in 1932 it was perhaps the most famous in the world This book presents a complete catalogue of Dodgson s personal library with attention to every book the author is known to have owned or read Alphabetized entries fully describe each book its edition its contents its importance and any particular relevance it might have had to Dodgson The library not only provides a plethora of fodder for further study on Dodgson but also reflects the Victorian world of the second half of the 19th century a time of unprecedented investigation experimentation invention and imagination Dodgson s volumes represent a vast array of academic interests from Victorian England and beyond including homeopathic medicine spiritualism astrology evolution women s rights children s literature linguistics theology eugenics and many others The catalogue is designed for scholars seeking insight into the mind of Charles Dodgson through his books
