instruments probing how musicians represent subjectivities of gender race and social class in shaping songs and whole albums Tracing connections from foundational blues gospel and rock musicians to current rap artists he clarifies how inferences of musical topic and narrative are part of a larger creative process in strategically positioning musical gestures By engaging with songs by female artists and artists of color Koozin also challenges the methodological framing of traditional theory scholarship As a contribution to work on embodiment and meaning in music this study of popular song explores how the situated and engaged body is active in listening performing and the formation of musical cultures as it provides a means by which we understand our own bodies in relation to the world The Living Church ,1963
